UEBERT & BEBE ANGEL

With years of full-time ministry behind them, Uebert and BeBe Angel are pioneering and leading voices in proclaiming the Good News of God's grace (Euaggelion) and the prophetic around the world. Between them, they are best-selling authors of Spiritual Warfare, Intimacy, Prayer Banks, Supernatural Power of The Believer, etc. Uebert and BeBe Angel are internationally sought-after conference speakers and as global leaders, they are highly regarded for their vision, innovation and boldness. As the founders of the Good News Church (Spirit Embassy), and holding the office of the prophet they have impacted millions of lives worldwide through their passion to win souls by bringing the revelation of the Good News of God's grace (Euaggelion).

Genesis 27:7 (KJV)

Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

We see here in the scripture that Isaac was advanced in age. So, naturally, one could say it was the right time to bless his children, and you would be right. However, we notice that Isaac requested "venison" from his son before he could impart the blessings upon him. Isaac demanded something in exchange for the transfer of a spiritual blessing. One could reason here that in a spiritual transaction, something of value that the Blessor loves must be given or released from the one to be imparted upon.

As you give your tithes, offerings, and seeds to support the work of the ministry, your name is being enlisted in the registry of Heaven for an overflow of blessings you cannot imagine. In this year of Heaven on Earth, when all else seems to be silent, your "venison" will speak for you. When you rise to the occasion in the face of the ministry's needs, that is "venison" to create the portal for a release of blessings upon your life now and always in Jesus' mighty name!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am blessed to be a blessing. My life will continue to rise. I shall partake fully of the grace and anointing associated with the ministry's work, and wherever I go, I shall testify of God's goodness in Jesus' name!

John 10:27 (KJV)

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

There are so many voices out there that constantly vibrate in your ears. Yet Jesus simply says My sheep hear my voice! God is still saying something, and those who can tune in to His frequency will be able to download ancient truths spoken esoterically to impact nations. This is not a secret because a secret is for a selected few, but esoteric is general. However, to be able to hear and receive the message requires tuning in to the right frequency constantly.

The moment you incline your ears to the right frequency that broadcasts God's agenda, that will be the turning point in your life. It is also important to have a man of God over your life. In a situation where you think God is silent over your life, career, and family, and you do not know what to do, the voice of your man of God becomes the voice of God to you at that moment. So start reading God's Word and praying, and be found in the gathering of Christians. Then you will start to tune in to God's frequency and hear Him clearly.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My ears are now tuned to the right frequency to hear God speak to me directly, specifically, personally, and prophetically. In this year of Heaven on Earth, I shall hear God speak even to my Spirit in Jesus's name!

And he asked him, What is thy name?
And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

The Bible speaks of this man possessed with unclean spirits called Legion in the countryside of Gadarene. A Legion in the Roman military could comprise thirty to thirty-five thousand soldiers, so a Legion is a huge and massive military force. Imagine one man was able to carry this demonic entity. The possessed man was bound with chains and fetters by strong men, and the following day, everything was shattered from his hands and feet. We realise in this scenario that men were fighting spiritual problems with ordinary methods.

I always tell people that there is no problem that is ordinary and removed from spiritual realities, no, not one. Every problem you encounter has a spiritual connotation. Believe it or not, this is the fact. When you see your finances not adding up, note that there is a spiritual manipulation somewhere around you. Today is a different day because age-old bondages are forever broken and destroyed over your family, business, and life, in the name of Jesus! You are free for free! In this year of Heaven on Earth, your testimony will shock you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am free for free. No more delay in my life, in my business, in my marriage and my family. I know whom the Son of Man sets free is free indeed!

And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

Goshen was in Egypt, part of the same region where Pharaoh, Egypt's leader, dwelled. However, when Moses demanded Pharaoh to release the children of Israel from Egypt, Pharaoh's refusal brought plagues to Egypt. Surprisingly, Goshen was spared the plagues. The environment of Moses, God's Prophet, was experiencing a climate of tranquillity and peace. In this year of Heaven on Earth, where others are experiencing hardships, by reason of being in the prophetic environment, you will not experience hardships.

When there is a going down for others, there shall be a rising for you and your family. Understand, the GoodNews World carries an environment of increase, divine protection, favour, and much more. So, by association, these are yours in the Name of Jesus. This environment, which you have now entered, will dictate fruitfulness in your family. God's provisions will never run dry in your life. You are valuable in this environment of angels. You are guided and escorted by angels as you go out and as you come in, in Jesus' name.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

In this year of Heaven on Earth, I shall acquire properties. I am moving higher. I shall multiply in my business. I shall be fruitful and greatly increase. My life has been translated from ordinary to extraordinary in the name of Jesus!

Acts 7:17

Mark 11:14 (KJV)

And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

In our scripture for today, how can we grasp that a fig tree talks! The Scriptures tell us that Jesus answered the fig tree. This implies that the fig tree spoke first to Jesus. What did the fig tree say to Jesus? How did it dare to utter words that angered its Creator? These scenarios seem to be a replay of what transpired in the garden of Eden when Adam and Eve sinned, and immediately a fashion design idea sprang up when they tried to cover themselves with fig tree leaves.

The fig tree had long tried to replace Jesus because eventually, in Eden, God killed a lamb and made a covering for Adam and Eve, signifying that it is only the blood of the Lamb (Jesus) that has the power to remove sin and reconcile man back to God, not fig trees. Anything and everything that tries to replace Christ in your life suggest a fig tree mentality. But as for you, you will not be like the fig tree. For those in business, your business shall increase and produce money in this Year of Money, in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My life has taken on a new meaning. I am for Christ, and my life is to please Him in what I do. I shall take care of my Master's business as He takes care of my business in Jesus mighty name!

As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

The first step to priesthood is separation. You cannot be entangled in an environment and circle of crowds who take God for granted. Our scripture for today is the Holy Spirit saying that, Paul and Barnabas should be separated from the rest. Sometimes you need to step back and say wait a minute, God is up to something special for me. When people suddenly leave you, it should not upset you; it is a setup for your promotion.

1 Peter 2:9 says, "But ye are ... a royal priesthood ... a peculiar people; ...

show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light. God is reducing your circle of friends so that you will be consecrated for His use. Paul wrote a third of the Bible simply because he was separated unto the Lord. Separation creates intimacy and develops communication. You are a masterpiece in the Lord's hand, and He is setting you apart for His use in this year of Heaven on Earth.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am set apart for a divine mission. I am a priest unto the Lord; my life shall be a light to many around me. I am a success, ready to disturb the devil and demonstrate the unquenchable power of God!

Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

All of God's creation was perfect and admirable from the beginning. The Bible says that after every creative production of God's power, God said it was good. The problem in Eden that brought Adam's demise puts the Cosmos out of course. You should understand that Adam operated at a dimension that made the elements bow to him. The moon, stars, and sun obeyed Adam's voice until he fell from that place of authority simply because he took a piece of wrong advice from Eve.

From the time of Adam till Jesus, no one was qualified enough to restore the Adamic power over creation until Jesus arrived on the scene. Sometimes, we must learn to say 'no' regardless of how friendly the advice is. Satan is not coming to you with horns and an ugly face; no, he brings a suggestion, a bite coated with honey. When you take it, then that is your end. Always be alert, vigilant, and sober-minded, not ignorant of the devil's devices, and you will experience victory in Jesus' name.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I operate from a position of triumph. My wisdom is not of this world. I have power and dominion over every circumstance and situation; therefore, I cannot be defeated. I live a life of victory in the name of Jesus!

When you have reached a certain level of spiritual maturity, you no longer use words. You put a premium on words. Do not spend time and energy on these strange bouts in your life anymore. Instead, focus on your calling. However, if they touch you, they are 'finished'! Those who find pleasure in harassing you, making a career of creating headaches for you, today, your weapon is a loud shout of victory.

I say shout aloud, and like the walls of Jericho, you will see them scatter before your very eyes. They do not need talking to, nor will they understand appeasement; just a loud thunderous SHOUT will blow their cover. They have come against you one way, but your shout of victory will send them fleeing in seven directions in the mighty name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My voice is like many waters. I am a son of Thunder. When I shout, diseases are cast down. My shout cannot be ignored; my voice is a lethal weapon. I shall experience Heaven on Earth now and always. Amen!

1 Corinthians 1:21 (KJV)

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

The GoodNews we preach is tied to the finished works of Christ. Jesus is doing the work in you so that no man should take the credit. We are the result of Christ's crucifixion, not the cause. We are a new breed that came forth from Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. Some Christians are busy searching for what to do when God is saying, "I called you. My agenda should be your agenda."

The Bible says we look unto Christ, the Author and Finisher of our faith. Jesus is the Mirror. 2 Corinthians 3:18 says, "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." As we look into His Word, we are transformed into His image. Understand it is not about you but about Him. See every challenge as a stepping stone to magnifying the Christ in you.

It is not normal for warriors classified as "mighty men of valour" to take their positions behind a choir team leading in a fierce battle. This is ridiculous to the ordinary person seeing with natural eyes, but wait and see the finality. You must understand that things of the spirit do not make sense in the natural, yet the battle you face is spiritual.

When uncommon negative things happen to you, a spiritual battle is raging, and you are at the epicentre. In this battle, you need not fight; just begin to praise and worship the Lord. He's the war strategist. As you worship Him deep down in your spirit, your worship will be amplified in the realm of the spirit, and angels will be dispatched to fight for you. This battle is the Lord's, and your victory is assured in the name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Have you ever felt increasing pressures and dilemmas which you could not tell anybody? You were burning in silent anguish. You could not say it aloud, as though you were in prison. If you even tried to explain to someone, they would not understand! Sometimes, even looking over your shoulders when no one is following you, facing a predicament you alone can understand, but I bring you good news: the tables are turning in your favour.

Where you have seen and felt rejection, in that same place, you will be celebrated. The God I serve is bigger

Those who thought they had silenced you will be the very ones to congratulate you. Cheer up; the word works! You are the victor, not the victim. My God is just too big to fail. Catch it and live it!

Just believe Jesus is your Healer, and with faith, you will experience your miracle. I speak to that cancer now, be healed in the name of Jesus! Whatever you are suffering from, receive your healing in the name of Jesus. Shout glory to King Jesus; He has done it for you!

God, by His Spirit, has healed you of that migraine headache, that tumour and that pain in the leg. As I write this, I speak the fruit of the womb to you in the name of Jesus. I have seen countless ridiculous miracles in ministry and witnessed creative miracles that are beyond words and demonstrate God's power. I know whom I have believed. He works supernaturally. This day I say healing is yours in the name of Jesus. Take it!

Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

Happiness depends on happenings and feelings. Happenings around you and in your surroundings will dictate happiness. Happiness is controlled by happenings and subject to change based on change of circumstances and environment. Whatever is happening to your mother or father affects you, whatever happens to your school affects you, and whatever happens to your neighbours affects you. This then becomes the driving force. That is happiness. But joy, on the other hand, is a choice. You choose to be joyful in the face of circumstances and situations.

Joy is from within, not dictated by emotions or feelings. It is your inner peace in the face of adversity; this is a condition of the heart. When you receive an eviction notice, negative medical report, or a marital challenge, begin to see the problem differently. Note, your time of promotion has come when you face diverse situations, be joyous. Let not your challenges take your focus from God. His divine intervention will make the problems disappear before you in Jesus' name!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Holy Spirit you were baptised with when you accepted Jesus is fire! Get in the mode where you begin to burn with that unquenchable fire. Whether you know it or not, you have that fire in you. When you begin to repeat that fire, you will experience fireworks from the inside out. Everything around you will be set ablaze with the fire of the Holy Ghost. Anything in your life that is of God will fuel the fire of the Holy Ghost to burn aglow.

Rekindle the fire of the Holy Ghost with serious prayer, immerse in the Word of God, and be active in God's work. Then your life will take on new meaning now and forever! Stir up the fire, repeat the fire, rekindle that fire, no matter what. Do you feel depressed, offended, and stressed? Repeat the fire till it registers to those coming against you like a fireball that cannot be tampered with.

And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

The Lord was with certain people in the Old Testament, but in New Testament realities, the Lord is in you! Having the Spirit of God in you signifies that when you speak, God is speaking, consequently when you speak, it must come to pass. What warrants your Christianity is found in you, therefore, you should count it a privilege to be a Christian. The Bible tells us that angels enquire to investigate these things. What things? Christ in you, the hope of glory!

The scripture for today says the Lord was with Samuel and let none of his words fall to the ground. A tangible evidence-based relationship with God will involve His Word working in you to do extraordinary exploits. The only thing that will continue to echo in Heaven is the Word of God. You will no longer need faith or prophecy. Read the Bible daily. You must know the Word of God for yourself and see it work in you and through you in this year of Heaven on Earth, in Jesus' name!

Luke 1:80

John 10:34 (KJV)

Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

This statement boldly made by the Lord Jesus himself was emphatic. Many Christians have serious problems with this bold declaration. Why? Because they refuse to come to terms with their identity. Jesus was not in error to call us "gods." This is the original divine plan which has not been altered. When Jesus, who is God personified, called you "god," who else can refute it? "You are gods!" This is the very reason you can self-repair any malfunction in your body. You are destined for greatness. Accept this reality: you are far above powers and principalities, seated with Christ in heavenly places.

Adam was not an ordinary human being. He was created by God to function like God, so Adam operated beyond the natural realm. Imagine God coming in the cool of the evening to have a conversation with Adam. This shows that God talks to gods. Jesus is called the last Adam because He restored all that Adam lost back to us. You are a god! Act and speak like one!

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

Every word is accounted for in Heaven, whether good or bad. No word spoken is left aimlessly roaming around without accountability. Do your words build your husband? Your wife? Your children? Your colleagues? Understand that you are a direct result of what you said yesterday or last year, so what are you speaking? Everything you say should build you up. Your words need to have a premium on them. Stop saying, "I'm broke." These words will go out and bring a broke spirit into your life that will make what you have spoken a reality!

The Bible says the Lord sent His Word (like servants), and they are ready to work! Take Proverbs 18:21: "Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." You know the theory, but you must practice it. You may have spoken bad words in the past. The only way to correct that is to speak good words to counter and cancel those bad words now. Are you sick? Speak healing words and see yourself healed in the name of Jesus!

You do not know whether it is panic or heightened fear. These are the uncomfortable feelings you harbour when you think you might be cross examined at an immigration checkpoint and be denied entry. Strange feelings develop when life's challenges stampede on your mind.

Your reassurance is in God's Word that the whole earth belongs to God and everything in it! This is a revelation of your status in any nation, territory, or continent. The God you carry owns everything, everywhere; you cannot be denied any good thing. Why? Because it belongs to God, and you are a possessor of good things. That land you want to acquire, those properties you desire, the country you want to be your final habitation, whatever good thing you desire, God said He will grant your heart's desire; so it is yours, in Jesus mighty name!

Some creatures in Heaven have eyes over them and see in every direction without turning. "Angel" is a job description. It is service that transforms you into an angel. The same applies on Earth. You can be a burning one who does not wait to be told but acts their faith and becomes a luminary in the realm of the spirit by your service.

The burning ones are on fire for Jesus; therefore, they can dictate events and cause things to shift instantly without referral to another authority. The scripture says, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name:" (John 1:12). What follows in that conversation was Jesus prophesying to the woman about her life; it stunned her and she perceived that Jesus is the Messiah!

The woman requested living water, and Jesus gave her prophecy. The prophetic is the living water that Jesus spoke

However, the rhinoceros has a sight problem, it cannot see beyond 20 meters. When you get home, do you still read the Bible? Or leave it to get dusted till the following Sunday service? Well, the answers to all these questions will determine your level of maturity and spiritual growth. You see, your fellowship with the Holy Spirit is personal and individualistic.

Until healing becomes a Person to you, you remain sick! Until prosperity becomes a Person to you, you remain broke! There is a dimension where you must encounter the Person connected to the things, and that is Jesus Christ. There are constant activities in the realm of the spirit, but until these activities are provoked, they remain dormant!

Spiritual activities are happening in your household, neighbourhood, all around you, but your spiritual eyes must be open to see. In this year of Heaven on Earth, as you begin to go deeper in prayer, the Word, and fellowship with the Holy Spirit, your spiritual eyes will be wide open, and you will begin to see into deeper realms - another world that is more real than the physical you see and feel. 1 John 3:2 (KJV)

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

If you do not know, let me tell you now that you are already living in the atmosphere of the prophetic. 1 Corinthians 14:5 says I would that you all speak in tongues., but something of more significance mentioned in that verse is for all to prophesy. The deeper life we have entered in the GoodNews Nation is sustained by the prophetic! We eat, drink, and sleep the prophetic. The prophetic unction edifies the Church.

You are being built up like a building, brick by brick. The year 2023, called “Heaven on Earth,” is a prophesied year like no other. God said it, the Prophet heard it, and that settles it. You will experience what it means to live a life of Heaven on Earth; lack is far removed from you now. You have walked into the territory of abundance; I prophesy to you: Your life will be celebrated in this year in Jesus' mighty name.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am born at such a time like this to show forth God's glory. I am a bearer of GoodNews, a carrier of God's power by the Holy Spirit that has taken residence in me in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

I love the fellow in this verse because the Bible tells us that immediately when he received the five talents, he did not procrastinate. He invested immediately, buying and selling commodities. He was on the stock market, just like any legitimate business. This fellow didn't wait to be told what to do. Some Christians will wait and wait, telling people they are waiting on the Lord when the Lord is waiting on them to make that strategic move.

Who gave you that idea? Who connected you to the resources? Who is keeping that desire and fire to do business burning in you constantly? By now, you should know it is the Lord's doing. You have been too local for too long. Now is the time to go global, especially with the advent of these new social media platforms. Today as you are moved by the Holy Spirit, do not relax. The fellow in the scripture acted immediately, and he gained one hundred per cent profit. That should be your mindset.

One can only marvel at the tenacity and steadfastness of the disciples. How did they make disciples of men, from a few handfuls of men to conquering nations and having over 3.5 billion Christians in the world today and counting? They were zealous, not intimidated or perturbed, but vigilant, steadfast, and determined to complete their task. As the disciples did during their lifetime, our mission is "Hell empty and Heaven full!"

You might feel like evangelism or living a prayerful life is a challenge, and there seems to be an invisible wall between you and your miracle most of the time. Note: now is the time to rejoice! In this year of Heaven on Earth, the walls stopping your progress are coming down with speed. Church growth will exceed expectations beyond belief. Anything that has been preventing you from fulfilling your God-given destiny and purpose shall fall in Jesus mighty name! Amen.

And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

The Church today is more conscious of its surroundings than it is with the move of the Holy Ghost. Our scripture for today is clear: we should be drunk in the Holy Ghost! The actual rendering is "be ye being filled." Be continually intoxicated by the Holy Ghost until you get to the point where you are an alcoholic in the Spirit! Abraham staggered not. He was an alcoholic in the Spirit but maintained his posture and focus. How much of yourself have you availed to the Holy Spirit?

Some Christians give half their lives to the Holy Spirit but maintain the other half for themselves! Wanting God to be responsible for your marriage, children, and career but not your finances is an error. Avail yourself one hundred per cent, completely submerged and filled with the Holy Spirit. When you become an alcoholic in the Holy Spirit, He fully controls you; even your dress code is determined by Holy Ghost's choice. Trust Him completely. Then and only then will you experience the fullness of His power.

God took time to number the hair strands on your head and is fascinated with every fibre of your being. When you understand the complexity of yourself from the inside out, then you know God is not mad with you but mad about you.

What is happening in the world is not new to God; we are at the eschatos - the end of the end of the last chapter. All the visible signs are there to see. What is happening around us was prophesied long ago. We have experienced pestilences like COVID-19 of global proportions that brought economies of nations to their knees. The good news is, as a Christian, you are not caught unaware as these things happen. In fact, the Bible tells us to cheer up when these things take place because your redemption is near. The daily news should not frighten you. Cheer up! The Word works!

Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

Life is a business. You are either making profits or recording losses. Therefore, you must make some conscious decisions to profit in life. Most people interpret proximity to the man of God as power, authority or high ranking in the realm of the spirit. They forget to build themselves up spiritually to conquer the battles of life and make profits. However, you must build yourself on your most holy faith to take on the vicissitudes of life with profit margins.

The time has come to take your prayer life and the study of the Word to another dimension. Your spiritual growth must expand beyond the current level to higher levels. The problem is that most Christians have not realised that life is spiritual and still think life is determined on the surface or physical. However, you need to be vastly grounded in the things of the spirit. Then you will navigate life with a profitable story.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am spiritually vigilant; I do not respond to life's challenges with physical methods. I have power over life's circumstances. I will not be ignored for greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world.

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

Notice the specification in this scripture: "that" will I do, not anything else. You see, most people get locked on the "whatsoever" and have not fully apprehended that Jesus says "that" specific thing will I do. You will not understand that prayer is important until you understand why we pray. The man or woman of prayer is a person of change. The mystery of prayer is understanding who you are in Christ! Learn to pray as a Christian because there is no prayer warrior!

The Bible say you are more than a conqueror, so who would you be fighting?

God's dealing with you is based on that specific thing you desire in accordance with His Word. As you pray, you give God permission to intervene in your affairs. Therefore, be specific in what you are praying for. Prayer gives God license to operate on the earth. So, when giving that permission, let it be specific, concise, and precise on what is required. Christ in you is the one talking, so your prayer is guaranteed to be answered.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

Every night, your body undergoes a unique and remarkable experience: it believes itself to be dead. To ensure that you are still alive, your brain monitors vital signs as you sleep and often causes muscle twitches called hypnic jerks if something appears amiss. That is why you may find yourself suddenly twitching or jerking awake. It's as though your body read the scripture and recognized its need to die daily. As strange as this may sound, this nightly death is essential for continued life!

It's understandable for us to feel an involuntary reaction, but what makes us truly powerful is our ability to choose how we respond. Rather than be compromised by pride or anger, practice dying daily. Take the time to look within yourself and identify those habits, mindsets or attitudes that can grasp hold of your heart. Find peace every single day by dying daily for true rest and joy. Let go of prideful moments by dying to your right to always be right, and let offences fade with a reminder that you are dead to them now!

It takes the Spirit of God to truly understand the scriptures. Without His insight, we would be scratching our heads over what appear to be contradictions. For instance, "the race is not given to the swift" by human standards seems counter-intuitive because the swiftest or fastest runner typically wins a race, yet the Bible seems to say otherwise. According to the rules of English, an incomplete sentence is a grammatical violation. You see, communication is not only about connecting with your audience but also presenting that information in the correct way. Fragments, or incomplete sentences, can be considered the linguistic equivalent of dropping out of school. Submitting an essay laden with fragments would result in failure. Similarly, when one speaks in incomplete sentences, they run the risk of being deemed unrefined, uneducated, or ignorant; their speech or dialect is considered “broken.”

When it comes to spiritual things, there are also “rules” to follow.

When you present your prayer to God, He also looks for and expects the format of your prayer to conform to the linguistic requirements He has set forth. Prayer is a messenger that you dispatch into your future armed with correct and potent words. You are empowered to make requests as a priest and also to declare things into being as a king. So, next time you pray, go beyond merely presenting requests. Complete your prayer as a king by making bold declarations about how things will be according to God’s Word!

It's almost as if it checked the calendar and said, "Aha! It's time to start making people sick again!" The words of the media and those who believe it empower this nasty little bug to fulfil its yearly obligation. People run around looking for cold and flu medicine, and there is a heightened awareness concerning the virus getting into people's bodies. It dominates people's consciousness to the point where the slightest sneeze is thought to be the onset of the dreaded virus.

However, within every Christian lies a powerful agent - infinitely more potent than any external threat to your body. Apostle Paul called it "Christ in you." Develop the consciousness that Christ is inside. If there's a pain in your leg, say, "Christ is in this leg!" Constantly imagine Christ in your bank account and in every inch of your body. God has made you in such a way that it is impossible for you to have a thought that is impossible. That means if you can think it, it is possible. However, that requires a bulldozer mentality, a refusal to see anything as an obstacle. Faith makes it possible.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

Prayer is an essential part of any Christian's life and an extremely powerful way of developing intimacy with the Lord. When we pray, we open ourselves to hear from our loving Father, allowing Him to take away our worries and doubts. By praying the Word regularly, we develop our hearing ability which deepens our faith; we build a strong connection with God by gaining wisdom that can only come from the One who knows us best.

Prayer also strengthens our spirit, helps us gain clarity in times of confusion, and guides us, through the intervention of the Holy Spirit, towards living in accordance with God's will. It gives us strength and courage when faced with difficult decisions or trying circumstances. When things get tough, it reminds us that we are never alone, no matter how great the difficulty or how deep the despair may seem, because God is always there. So don't be afraid to give voice to your thoughts, feelings and concerns. Call upon the Lord today; your prayers will not go unheard!

Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

It may sometimes seem difficult to rejoice or maintain a positive outlook in times like these. The world is filled with moral decadence, and bad news bombards the airwaves to the extent that it seems as if there is nothing to rejoice about. Most people confuse joy and happiness. Joy and happiness are both emotions that bring us pleasure. However, there is a key difference between them. Happiness is based on happenings; it is dependent on external circumstances and is fleeting in nature. Joy, on the other hand, comes from God and is eternal.

Joy is the culture of Heaven, and you are a citizen of Heaven, which means joy is your culture. The mere fact that the Word of God tells you to rejoice always means it is possible to do it. So, when life seems tough, look away from external circumstances and tell yourself, "I am in the Lord – the Place of unending joy!" He will never leave or forsake you, which means His joy is always at your disposal. So, make a conscious decision - choose joy, no matter what!

To be logical means using facts, data, and evidence to make good decisions. It is thinking carefully, making conclusions that make sense, and using facts and proof to back up your ideas. Logic also helps you find answers, in a clear way, instead of just guessing. Being logical enables you to make the best choices for yourself. Yet when it comes to your health, decisions can be made that defy logic. For example, if you have ever had surgery, you agreed to let a stranger who called himself a doctor, whose credentials you likely never verified, render you unconscious, cut you open, and then charge you tens of thousands of dollars for the pain they inflicted.

While medicine has its benefits, the Word of God surpasses logic and offers a higher system that provides pain-free healing at no cost to you. The prescription is only believe, and after believing, have faith. Don't let earthly logic limit your understanding of what's possible in the realm of the spirit. Our phones have become so ingrained in our lives that the average person reaches for their phone nearly 2,617 times every day! On average, people spend about 2 hours and 23 minutes on social media each day. These platforms are advertised as being free, but whenever something is offered for free, the price is your attention. Mobile phones have replaced conventional alarm clocks, so it is common to find people reaching for their phones as soon as their eyes open each day.

Instead of reaching for your phone as soon as you wake up, reach for God. Take a moment to kneel down and say your morning prayers, giving thanks to God and communing with Him. Then begin to decree things into being. Tell your day what it needs to do for you. Don't stop there: try to allocate six minutes each hour to pray throughout the day. It may seem challenging at first, but six minutes is not much more than the length of the average song! With this small change in your routine, you will bank a tenth of your day in prayer, and every hour will be covered!

God said, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

It is said that a person's name is to that person the sweetest and most important sound in any language. A person's name is often seen as a significant and important aspect of their identity. It is the primary way in which we are identified and distinguished from others, and it often carries important cultural, familial, and personal meanings. Names are so important that throughout scripture, God is seen associating Himself with the names of people like Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Names are prophetic declarations. Think of it. Every time you speak a person's name, you declare the meaning of that name. That is why it is so important for you to allow the Holy Spirit to influence what name you choose to identify yourself or your children with. I heard of a child named Chaos, then the mother wondered why he was always causing trouble. Take the time to find out what the meaning of your name is. If it is not a name God can associate Himself with, change it.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

What do you call a worker who has nothing to do? The answer is simple – unemployed! That may sound funny, but many Christians treat their angels as though they are unemployed. You see, angels are given to you by God as your workers. The Bible says that they are here to minister for you. God has provided them as resources for you to take advantage of. Angels, however, are legalistic creatures. They do what they are told to do, and they do not take any initiative on their own.

I often say Christians don't give what they are taught to give; they give what they are told to give. Angels are the same. You cannot teach them how to respond to you. They only respond to what they are told. They are commanded, and they do it. If you don't command them each day, they just stand around like idle workers. Do not waste your angelic resources by allowing them to stand around doing nothing. Tell them what to do!

Proverbs 8:13 (KJV)

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

The ways of the enemy are subtly deceptive, that is why even Christians can find themselves entertained by what God hates. This causes spiritual conflict and compromise. For example, many Christians laugh and call it “entertainment” when they see a man dressed up and acting like a woman, yet God says that is an abomination to Him. Some decry adulterous and lascivious lifestyles but sit in front of a television for hours, watching those very things on the screen, allowing their minds to be programmed by the devil. Beloved, these things ought not to be so.

It is very difficult to pull someone out of a bar while sitting on the barstool next to them sipping Stella Artois. That would weaken one's witness and risk losing a soul they should have won to Christ. In this deeper life, there must be a clear distinction between who is for God and who is not. The fear of the Lord is key. The fear of the Lord simply means to love what God loves and hate what God hates. The Word and the Spirit of God will make these things known to you. So, make your allegiance clear, and never compromise your witness.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.

Tithing is a spiritual principle that pre-dates the Old Testament and surpasses the New Testament. The first record of tithing is in Genesis 14:20, where Abraham gave a tithe to Melchizedek. This was before the Law. In fact, Moses was not even born! Tithing is a principle of faith! It is a declaration of honour to God as the source and protector of all He has blessed you to have. Certain benefits are guaranteed for the tither. God promised to "rebuke the devourer."

That means everything you count as a blessing in your life should be preserved. The devil is not allowed to touch your money; he is not allowed to touch anything you produce, including your business, marriage, children, ministry, or health. So, if there is any area in your life where the enemy is trespassing, demand that the devil keep his hands off what belongs to you! God will back you up without fail!

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

God made us in His own image and likeness, but have you ever wondered why? Let me explain it this way. When a glovemaker creates a glove, he lays out the finest materials and, piece by piece, carefully tailors it into a finished handiwork we call a glove. He has only one thing in mind: he wants the hand to fit inside perfectly. When God made you, He had the same idea. He carefully crafted you so He could fit inside.

When the hand moves, the glove moves. It holds what the hand holds and releases what the hand releases. It moves in perfect fluidity until there is no more distinction between the glove and the hand inside. That is the kind of oneness God desires to have with you. You are God walking, when you move, God moves. When you talk, God is talking. He is inside you, and it is His desire to fill every periphery of your being with divinity.

2 Timothy 1:6 (KJV)

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

Countless theologians, pastors and teachers have expounded on this verse and have taught that the gift it refers to its one of the spiritual gifts. However, the gift spoken of here is the person of the Holy Spirit, the giver of the gifts Himself! Now, if the Holy Ghost in you is the gift you need to stir, how do you do it? How can you stir a person? By putting yourself in remembrance.

The psalmist got a hold of this principle, and in Psalm 103 he exhorts us to remind ourselves of all the Lord's benefits. When you want to rekindle the fire, remind yourself of everything God has done for you! God needs you to be on fire for Him. So, if you find yourself growing cold, struggling to pray, neglecting to read your Bible, fearful, stressed and depressed, stir up the fire! Consistently remind yourself of what God has done for you until the glow of the fire Holy Ghost is seen all over your life!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The fire of God is on me, and my light is so bright that I blind my enemies. In this year of Heaven on Earth, I am consumed by the fire for God, and the whole world will watch me burn!

And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

We serve a spoiled God who is used to offerings being presented to Him in a certain way. When King David recovered the Ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom, every time the people carried the chest six steps, David sacrificed an ox and a choice cow. Imagine giving sizeable offerings over 3000 times in one service! However, it's not about the oxen or cows or, in our case, the money – God doesn't need our money. It's about honouring God!

God is more interested in what you have left more than what you actually give, because that distinction reflects your level of honour. That is precisely why the Lord could look at a poor widow who gave 2 mites – the equivalent of a penny – and determine that she gave more than all the rich folks. She gave all she had to the God she honoured. When you give, understand that God has the right to refuse any offering that does not honour Him. So, give Him your best because you love and honour Him and because you know that being a cheerful giver gives Him pleasure.

And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

“Faith the size of a grain of mustard seed” is a more commonly known scripture. However, many have yet to understand its meaning. God is a faith God, and there is nothing little about Him. He is the One who gave you the faith you have. So, when the Lord Jesus spoke about faith as a grain of mustard seed, He was not referring to the size of your faith but to its capacity. He was not saying that little faith is all you need. On the contrary, He is displeased with little faith.

The faith of God in you has the nature of a mustard seed, for it is an exceedingly growing faith. Like a mustard seed, it can grow from a small thing to something that takes over. This can only happen as you exercise your faith, which is what God expects you to do. Work out your faith on small things, then as it grows – and it will grow – exercise it on bigger things until your faith becomes great!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the same faith God has. Therefore, I am equipped to meet any challenge and be victorious. Today I am looking for giants to conquer because my faith is immovable, constantly supplied by the hearing of the Word of God, and it will not fail!

And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

Imagine a life where you are self-sufficient and don't need any financial support. That's what God wants for you. While it may be tempting to give money to anyone who asks, or support every charitable organization that tugs at your heartstrings, it's important to remember that being financially self-sufficient is also part of God's plan for you. The Bible teaches us to give to everyone who asks, but that doesn't mean we have to give everything they ask for.

If you want to truly prosper, take a lesson from the wealthy: information is the key to prosperity. Sure, they may have the funds to spare, but they know that a little bit of financial help won't get you far if you don't have the knowledge to sustain yourself. Charitable donations come after being "furnished in abundance." So how can you reach that level of self-sufficiency? Through knowledge of the Word and giving to God's purposes. As you give to Him, He will take care of the furnishing.

Because of the privilege and authority[a] God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us.

If you are unwell, the Good News is you can receive your healing at any time. It might sound too easy, but it's the truth. Remember, though, that while receiving healing is immediate, the manifestation may take time depending on the level of your faith. To believe in healing, you need to have knowledge about it from the Word of God. Remember also that faith is progressive, and you cannot use the same level of faith in every situation.

Have you ever experienced disappointment when you faced a challenge you thought you were ready for, only to find out you were not ready? It's a tough pill to swallow, but it's a common mistake many people make. The solution? Assess your faith at a junior level before you take on senior challenges. Think of it as a workout for your faith muscles. By assessing your faith, you can save yourself from biting off more than you can chew. Remember, faith isn't something that can just be increased overnight – it requires practice, patience, and perseverance.

Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry.

A red alert is a warning signal of imminent and grave danger. It calls for an instant response from everyone in its vicinity to take precautions and prepare for the worst-case scenario. Every second counts during a red alert, as vital decisions must be made quickly to protect oneself and others from danger. Red alerts are urgent reminders that time is of the essence when dealing with life-threatening situations and require quick action from those in its vicinity to avoid disaster.

The realm of the spirit is on red alert, but that doesn't mean it has to be an intimidating or frightening experience for you.

In fact, it can be incredibly empowering and rewarding to learn how to navigate this heightened state of awareness.

Every word you say carries weight and creates a way for spirits to come towards you, so being strategic in your speech is essential for creating the life you want to live. So put your mouth on red alert. Take thoughtful pauses before speaking, and remember every word you say has the potential to manifest life-changing results. Be conscious that you are dealing with life and death, and you will surely avoid disaster.

While the world around us experiences economic hardship and instability, the Christian has access to a different kind of banking system – one that is rooted in faith and powered by the supernatural! When Jesus told his disciples to fish for men, He was calling them to service and introducing them to a new source of provision outside of what they were accustomed to. Following the Lord's instruction was how Peter was able to provide and respond to financial needs.

God will take care of you and open financial opportunities beyond what you thought possible. For those of us in business, God's Word instructs us to do good, especially to fellow Christians – tap into the Christian market! The Lord's instruction to "find" the money is the key. As we seek out this source of abundance, there is no limit to what the Lord will provide. The sea is filled with "fish," and in this year of money, you will be beyond rich!

So, for every business owner who believes this truth and acts on God's Word in faith, your businesses are guaranteed good success. Even if you don't have a business yet, it is not too late to start! A business gives God access to a place where He can put your money. Now I hear you saying, but what if I don't have a business? I'm glad you asked.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

The 'What would Jesus do' (WWJD) movement originated in 1896 when a young minister challenged his congregation to ask themselves, "What would Jesus do?" before making any decision or taking action. The concept has since been picked up by millions of individuals around the world as a way to guide their daily lives and decisions. This phrase has even spread into popular culture, and its impact can be seen in everything from literature to jewellery. However, there is an aspect of Jesus' life that is notably absent that many opted not to embrace: the culture of separation.

Jesus lived an extraordinary life of total surrender and obedience to God. The call to follow Him requires us to go beyond the mediocre Christian life – it is a call to true holiness and spiritual maturity. Only through a forsaking of the world in our hearts can we receive the promise of deeper intimacy with God. There is no other way than complete rebellion against sin. Choose to abandon any sinful ways and live in accordance with God's will. Then, and only then, can you experience the beauty and the wonders of the crucified life.

And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

Quality is copied. That is true in business, style, and spirituality. People have often remarked how I remind them of my father and mentor, Pastor Chris Oyakhilome. That's by design. It goes beyond copying the words, actions, and mindset of someone I admire greatly; it is about creating an environment like his. The Bible says that Enoch walked with God, and then God took him, put him on like a pair of overalls and walked him right out of this earthly realm. However, before this personal rapture happened, Enoch walked with God for 300 years!

We do not have enough time to cultivate the longevity and close fellowship with God that Enoch enjoyed. So, we have to look for spiritual shortcuts. One such shortcut is to take note of what makes the person you admire who they are, then copy those things. What is it that they emphasize as most important in their life? Is it prayer? Is it separation? Perhaps it is the way they give unto the Lord. Copy those things at the level you are capable of, and you will soon find yourself sharing their environment and its benefits!

A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

Money sometimes gets a bad rap, but if we understand the power of what it can give us access to and how we can use it to further God's Kingdom, then a whole world of possibilities opens up for us. People sometimes wonder why we talk about money as often as we do. The answer is simple: you need it! Money is spiritual, and in the realm of the spirit, you cannot access what you do not have information about. Without information, ignorance becomes a mountain in the way of your money.

God wants you to prosper in every way, especially financially, so we have to talk about it. Furthermore, you have to talk about it. That's a spiritual principle that demonstrates you have faith to receive. So, decide to be rich because God wants it that way. When money comes to you, use it as an opportunity to honour God and finance the Kingdom. Money is not a bad thing – it's about how you use it! So, make a commitment today to make the most out of the money that comes to you by using it for God's purposes, and boldly declare that money is coming to you!

Psalm 35:27

Mark 9:23 (KJV)

Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

Faith begins where the will of God is known, and the will of God is His Word. When we know the will of God and submit to it, we acknowledge that God is all-knowing and trustworthy. It is from this position that we pray. Faith allows us to go beyond doubt as we trust God's promises, believing His Word without reservation. However, when we insert 'if' into our prayers, we are essentially telling God that we don't fully trust Him or His plan for our lives. "If" is a child of doubt.

"If" is an indication that you don't know the will of God. When you're certain of the will of God, you can boldly declare as Jesus did in John 11:42: "I know you hear me always!" Understand that everything in the life of a Christian works by faith. You cannot please God without it. So, when you pray, ask in faith without doubting. The moment doubt is introduced that prayer has been nullified. Doubt your doubts! Dare to believe the Word of God, and let nothing stop you. Know for certain there are no "ifs" when you pray; it's when!

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

If you have ever made a promise to a child, you understand what it means to be like a child when it comes to receiving the Word of God. Children live in a world full of possibilities, believing that anything is possible. When you make them a promise, their eyes light up with wonder and complete trust. They do not need any proof that you will do what you said. They simply believe what you say, speak freely about it with joy, and expect to receive what you promised.

Jesus taught that we must become like little children to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Their innocence, humility, and simple trust serve as powerful examples of how we should be as Christians. We can take inspiration from this childlike attitude, placing our trust in God, who never lies and does not change. He has always been faithful and will always be. He has given us every reason to trust that what He says is exactly the way it is. so, take the Word as a child would take it, and rejoice knowing that God will keep His promises to you.

Mark 2, verses 1-5, contains a remarkable account of unconventional faith. Four men carried a paralyzed man to Jesus, but they could not get access to Him. The place was so crowded there was no way for them to get in, much less carrying a stretcher with a paralyzed man on it, but they did not let that stop them. They knew Jesus had the answer they needed and, determined to get what they wanted, they climbed up on the roof, tore away a section, and lowered the man down to

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

One of the biggest excuses Christians will give is the 'lack of time to pray excuse'. Yet when you have so much to do, that's when you need to pray the most. Such busy times in your life require spiritual help to achieve results in a shorter time and in the best way. Instead of feeling too busy to pray, a wise person should say, "I have so much work to do that I'll need to give more time to prayer." You receive a boost in your energy and inspiration, which will give you supernatural speed.

Today's verse lets us know that we were made to pray. That the very fabric of being a human being is determined by their prayer life. Now imagine if you're the type of Christian that always asks others to pray while you don't. What happens? You lose all personal fellowship with God the Father. So, Prayer is not just sub-contracted while you relax, pray for yourself too.

Through prayer, you're built, encouraged, directed and obtain the Lord's mercy, grace and intervention in your circumstances. We don't pray just because we require a miracle; we pray because we are in a loving relationship with a real loving heavenly Father.

If a ruler pays attention to lies, all his servants become wicked.

In order to understand today's scripture, we need to establish what a liar is. A liar is someone who speaks anything that is contrary to God's Word. It doesn't make a difference how nice something might sound or how popular it is, if it does not line up with the Word of God, it is a lie.

If you look at our scripture reference, you immediately see the importance of being an honest leader. Majority of people reading this devotional right now are leaders in different capacities of leadership. You might be the head of a home, team leader at your workplace, a Pastor or someone placed in authority over something however small – that makes you a leader and subject to today's word.

For example, if you keep telling people supernatural healing is hard, or that God does not love everybody, those are lies. If you are prone to recklessly listening to everything you hear without the leading of the Holy Spirit - you become subject to lies that are detrimental to those under you. For as long as you give attention to lies, everyone around you becomes as bad as the lies spoken. Be careful what you hear.

And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

Today's verse sets a scene immediately after the famous feeding of the five thousand plus. The Lord Jesus separates Himself from the crowds and by evening, He's on the mountain top in complete seclusion, where he spends the whole night praying. Next morning between 03.00 and 06h00 am he's up, implying hardly any sleep or none, He comes down and just like that - walks on water.

How many have tried to walk on water THEN after failing, decided to spend time in prayer? Our prime example shows us how miracles happen, and the key is so simple – prayer! When you take time away from your phone, television, from your associates and separate yourself for fellowship with The Father, you become unshakable!

This is the reason why so many fall flat on their faces trying to work this or that miracle. Take time out, pray, then walk on water! Hallelujah.

Spiritual refining confronts a prideful nature or lack of humility, a bad attitude, lack of faith and so many other impurities found in God's people. You see, as a Christian, you must allow the Great Refiner, Our Lord God, Jehovah, to re-

Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

If you look at the word afflicted there, it is the word 'kakopattheo' in the original text. It means, to suffer, to endure hardships or troubles. That covers pretty much every problem a Christian might encounter.

Now based on today's theme scripture, we know the answer to affliction of any kind is prayer. It doesn't say cry or worry about it or go on social media to vent about it - it says PRAY! Some Christians enjoy the extra attention they get when they're going through problems. They'll find a 'shoulder' to cry on and talk about their issues for hours on end instead of acting against it through prayer.

It doesn't say complain, or murmur he said pray! If you're being treated wrongly - pray! That's the way to rid yourself of affliction.

Right now, begin to pray against that affliction in your life - that you will come out of it bigger and better! Also intercede for those afflicted around the world, in hospitals, in prisons, in hostile nations. Pray right now for them to experience the power and love of God wherever they are, in Jesus name!

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

One of the biggest problems with modern day Christianity is the desensitization of God's people, the brethren are now worldly. Let me show you why I say this.

The word "conformed" there means to 'follow another's pattern, to fashion alike'. If you look at the Church today, Christianity is now full of compromise. We have become too worldly in our approach to all things spiritual. We have followed the pattern of the world and brought it into the sacred courts of our Churches.

We sing 'worship' songs with very little Bible truths in them, dance the same way as those in night clubs, you'll see half-dressed Christians entering the Church halls without reverence to the sacredness of the sanctuary. Some even go as far as to fist fight in the house of God. This all shows the church is active; but the world is more active inside the church.

Territories and souls are lost when Christian's compromise by conforming to this world. Decide today to stand for the word of God and never conform to evil.

Therefore, with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

Many Christians are not aware that the key to living a fulfilling life is to have the joy of The Lord. Faith thrives and prevails in an atmosphere of joy. The kind of joy that cannot be explained, the kind of joy that laughs in the face of adversity, the kind of joy that never looks at circumstances.

The scripture above talks about wells of salvation. That means there are many elements and benefits to your salvation that you ought to enjoy, but these benefits can only be accessed through joy, do you see that? It says WITH JOY you draw water out of the wells of salvation. Not with prayer, not with fasting – with joy specifically.

So, without joy you do not possess the only tool or instrument that helps you live the way God wants you to live. Some Christians allow failed expectations to rob them of their joy. True joy is found in fulfilling your purpose; doing the things that the Father asked you to do. When you're living in your calling, nothing can hinder you. You're focused on your heavenly assignment, and nothing can bring more radiant joy than being about your Fathers' business!

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

There are some people who are experts at negativity. You know that every time you encounter them there will be one bad thing said whether it's the economy, or someone hurt them, or just life in general is bad. God didn't only instruct you to mount guard at the door of your heart against the wrong thoughts from passing through, He also tells you the kind of thoughts to allow and those are the ones above.

If you allow the enemy to push bad reports to you, those reports/thoughts control your life and lead to a very sad life. Don't brood over anything that's detrimental to your spirit, no matter how tempting it is. Rather, make a practice of forming the right images in your mind in consistency with the Word, those thoughts will create realities. As a man thinketh so is he (Proverbs 23:7). So, keep your mind stayed on God. Entertain only the best thoughts and watch your life change for the best!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My thoughts are filled with only the best things in life. I remove all negativity from around me as I focus on an impactful life in Christ. As I've declared it, it is done! Amen.

Colossians 3:2

1 Timothy 1:18 (KJV)

This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

The scripture above tells you about the power of a prophetic word. In fact, it tells you how a given prophecy can be weaponised. Imagine carrying a warhead wherever you go! No one will dare mess with you because of the weapon you carry! Now see how Timothy is being told just that – that the warfare will be a good one because of prophecies that have gone before you hallelujah!

The devil is not taking a holiday just because you received a prophecy, no! He fights you so that it never comes to pass. The year was given a prophetic theme, GO TO WAR FOR HEAVEN ON EARTH! Your bank account has to respond to heaven on earth, your life has to look like heaven on earth – if it's not, go to a faith war with that prophecy in hand. Take what belongs to you by force, it's your God given right! The Word of God is full of prophecies that have gone before you to usher you into your future – use those words to stand today in your business, in your family affairs etc.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I take every prophetic word over my life to war. If God said it, I take it and I war a good warfare with it, in Jesus Mighty Name! Amen.

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

The Bible says every Christian ought to have rivers of living waters flowing out of his belly. Let me give you this example. Flowing rivers usually carry fresh drinkable water, while other water bodies like lakes carry stagnant water that is not safe to drink. The Bible here gives an analogy of flowing rivers to tell us something about the state our innermost being, our spirit man, should maintain.

A lake goes nowhere – it is closed-up, full of dirty, bacteria ridden water. It symbolises the Christian whose life is going nowhere, specialises in asking for material things, is always sick and indulges in lusts of the flesh. You can tell when a Christian has no rivers of living water coming out of him by the fruits he produces.

One can start flowing from within by primarily getting into the Word and fellowship with God through prayer. With this kind of life, you are refreshed and in turn you refresh others. You're successful in all things and exude the glory of God! Everything you touch works! Choose to flow with the Holy Ghost today!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Rivers of living water are gushing out of me! I exhibit a life in Christ, and I am successful at it. As I go out today, I also shall refresh those around me, in Jesus Mighty Name! Amen.

And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Whatever you'll do today or for the rest of your life, ask yourself this question, is this endorsed by The Lord Jesus? Is it something he'll nod his head to in agreement? Can you do that thing and say in the Name of Jesus this is good? Can you give thanks to God our Father while doing it? Those words you're about to utter – are they Christ-like?

The book of Colossians points to something here that is extremely profound. If this is the standard by which Christians lived by, just imagine how many colossal mistakes would have been avoided.

Before you speak that gossip, you think on this verse, as the temptation to do that bad thing comes to you, you remember Colossians. Try this simple exercise before you start your day, tell yourself; whatever I say or do, I shall do it in the name of Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him!

Tell yourself if it's not endorsed by The Lord Jesus then I will not say it, nor will I do it!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

As I start my day today, everything that shall precede out of my mouth and everything that I do, I do it in the name of The Lord Jesus! I am fully endorsed by Him! Amen.

1 Corinthians 11:31-32 (KJV)

For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

There is so much talk in society today about judgement. Whether it's not wanting to be judged, or the judgment of God on people, or debates about judging others, it is a confusing subject for many. But what does the Bible actually say about it? Today's verse says by our OWN spirits, we can tell when we've done something wrong, so we ought to judge ourselves so that we might not be judged of the Lord.

When you examine yourself and find fault, act on the Word of God: receive forgiveness. You don't ask for forgiveness, which is where a lot of people miss it. Hebrews 4:16 says, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy..." Notice it doesn't say, "... and ask for mercy?" Instead, it says "to obtain," that is, collect it.

As you go out today, let your spirit, which has the nature of God, judge you, so that you might not be judged of the Lord.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am blessed to have the nature of Christ in me. I therefore walk up to the throne room of grace to obtain mercy. I am not condemned hallelujah! Thank you, Dear Lord Jesus!

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

God is the God of second chances and a thousand chances plus! The Bible is full of people who got a second chance. Abraham, who is called the father of faith, pretended his wife was his sister because he didn't have faith that God would protect him. Moses murdered someone.

Jonah ran from his assignment. Rahab worked as a prostitute and is in the lineage of The Lord Jesus. David committed adultery and had the woman's husband killed and yet all the those aforementioned are in God's "hall of fame", in Hebrews 11. God loves to give second chances, He's a God of grace! This is the GoodNews we preach! If you had to score points to receive God's grace, no one would stand a chance!

So, forget the former things and don't dwell on the past. God has started a new thing in you. Embrace it, grow in the Word and in grace, and never look back! The old you is long dead!

I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied. For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

If you are not already, imagine being relied upon as the one who makes things happen in church. For your man of God to stand there and acknowledge you as the one who covers every area that others lack. What a life of servitude! A Heaven on Earth kind of life!

When you look around you, there are such people everywhere. Some remain unsung heroes, while others are very visible. They take on the job of ten men and will never mutter a single complaint. The zeal of the house of The Lord consumes them. There are people in ministry, in your branch specifically, that make up for the lack of others.

Such men and women deserve recognition. Today's scripture teaches us just that. So today, go ahead and acknowledge those who supply where others have not and while you do so, choose to become that person today. Become a modern-day Stephanas and be counted among those who refresh the body of Christ in every way!

In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

As a Christian in this dispensation, you are to live in the Name of Jesus; function in His place, with His authority, and in His character. This is the greatest treasure prophets and patriarchs of old only saw glimpses of in the realm of the spirit. Take advantage of this Name New Testament Christian!

Colossians 3:17 says, "...whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks...." When you pray, it carries the same power and authority as though Jesus Himself were the one praying. It's a legal thing; He gave us the power of attorney to use His Name and live in His Name.

It doesn't matter what challenges you might be facing; if you use the Name of Jesus, victory is assured hallelujah!

So, then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Faith and fear work in the exact same way. Fear comes by hearing the words of the devil just as faith comes by hearing the Word of God. It is so essential for a Christian to always remember the words; "What did God say?"

If you get a bad diagnosis, you must ask yourself this question. When all odds seem stacked up against you, ask yourself the question. What is God's take in this matter? What does the Bible say? Understand brothers and sisters, God will never be part and parcel of sickness, nor will He be a part of abject poverty or a family breakdown. All bad comes from the devil. So, you cannot be lied to by the enemy that you deserve blood pressure because it runs in the family, that's fear being instilled in you by listening to negativity.

Never yield to fear because of an evil report. An evil report is any report that's not consistent with the provisions of the Gospel; anything that negates your rights, privileges, ability, and heritage in Christ Jesus. Get enough of the word of God in you and grow in faith.

Always ask; "What did God say?"

And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel.

Praying for those over you ought to be an essential part of your prayer life. Paul shows here that it is the prayers of the saints that enable ministers to fearlessly preach the gospel of The Lord Jesus Christ. Ministry is no easy feat and not without challenges, so prayer strengthens those who're at the helm of it. Your prayers also grant more grace to preach the Gospel with boldness and power, that many more souls are added to the Church all around the world.

So, take time out today to pray that men and women of God, Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Teachers and Pastors and all those who take on lead roles in churches are given utterance and emboldened by the Holy Spirit. As you pray, more souls come to the knowledge of Christ as a result.

Do not be deceived: Bad company ruins good morals.

I cannot tell you how many times I have seen people with so much potential waste it all away because they tagged themselves to bad company. It is a sad thing to see. People get messed-up when they get involved with a messed-up person.

If you've had or have friends with whom you're not experiencing any meaningful spiritual progress, or whose friendship hinders your effectiveness in the Gospel, it's high time you gave up such friendships. Don't negotiate; just end it, so your Christian life becomes exactly what God said it should be.

One precious woman, some years back, came to me asking for a blessing to perform catchy praise songs in nightclubs and pubs as a form of evangelism. I told her expressly not to do it as God had shown me the same lady falling by the wayside as a result. She didn't listen, and of course, as sure as I had seen it, she became a secular music singer complete with an abominable lifestyle and skimpy outfits befitting nightclubs. What happened? Bad company! You have those 'baddies' in your phone right now- start deleting!

Do not be deceived. Bad people make you bad too, stay away from them.

Life is a gift, and a calling from God. Everything in life, including the world around you, was created for your benefit. All you need to enjoy life to the full is to be who God called you to be as you stay in the Word. Some Christians work flat out day in and day out, the workload is so extensive that the money they get seems like a curse rather than a blessing.

The scripture says eat, drink and enjoy the good of your labour. You can have and enjoy your best life now if you simply make the decision to. You don't have to wait for the government of your country to set things right and make society conducive before you enjoy your life. You don't wait for a job promotion or for clients to flock to your store – learn to enjoy your life even before you hit your expected milestones.

You have been called into God's rest. Take charge of your life and enjoy it to its fullest, for God has made you a sharer, partner and participator of the divine nature.

Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Is it possible for God's power to be confined or made of zero effect? Emphatically yes! There are certain instances that no matter what, things simply will not shift in your life because the power of God in you is short circuited. Why or how? you might ask; well, God is confined to your words. Whatsoever you say is what He will do.

You see, today's scripture gives insight into the magnitude of God's desires for you to function in. He said I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession.

Notice how it doesn't say I will give you a new house or a new car. While those are still necessary, God is saying think bigger, think NATIONS! That's how big your scope should be.

Gone are the days of all-night prayer and fasting for a small loan from the bank or for a new job, think "I am a possessor of Nations!" When you pray for small things, God is limited to that prayer. Open your mind to greater things! Look square in the mirror and tell yourself; "I am too global to be local". Glory!!

All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits.

No matter how highly gifted or anointed you are, when it's mixed with pride, it's not acceptable to God. In my time ministering the Word of God around the world, I've seen highly spiritually gifted Christians, including pastors, whose work turned to emptiness, because they weren't walking in humility, everything they did was pure in their own eyes but not to God. You see God doesn't look at the size of your church building to determine your success, nor does he look at your bank account or the number of followers you have, he weighs the heart.

Everything you do in the house of God is an offering to Him; But God won't accept your offering if it's mixed with selfishness and greed; pomposity, pride and arrogance. Greatness in the house of God isn't measured by some results that you have achieved or attained. The Bible says in 1 Peter 5:5, "God resists the proud, but He gives grace to the humble." Humble yourself, do a little introspection today and correct yourself through the scriptures.

Pride, arrogance, haughtiness, or egotism have no place in me, for I walk in love and humility. I am experiencing ever-increasing greatness and unlimited progress in life as a result, in Jesus Name!

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Did you know that as a Christian, though you have a country of origin, a culture and a traceable genealogy you're actually born of God? Your very origin is in God; you're born of Him; you came from Him.

Today's verse shows the Christian isn't an ordinary person; he's a partaker of the divine nature. My prayer is that you understood what that means! It means you're in God's class of being, you're an associate of the God-kind. So, when you say you're more than a conqueror, this is what it's about; you're not merely quoting scriptures. This is a reality.

As He is, so are we in this world; meaning that as He's divine, so are we divine. Divine health is your nature, not a hope or promise from God, because you're born of God's incorruptible seed - His Word. Therefore, the life in you can't be corrupted by sickness, disease or death. Refuse to accept that it's "normal" or okay for a Christian to be sick; it's not. Meditate on this truth until it sinks in your spirit and becomes your experience. Refuse to accommodate anything that's inconsistent with your equality with divinity.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My life is full of glory, dominion and excellence. Therefore, I walk conscious of my divine nature today and always, reigning over Satan and his cohorts of Hell, in Jesus' Name! Amen.

For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

There are some Christians that have received the Holy Spirit, yet their hearts are full of troubles; they're worried about many things. They're worried about their children, their health, business, etc. They just seem to have so many reasons to not be happy. When you ask them how they're doing, they always have one negative thing to say or the other. Today's verse shows us there's a relationship between joy and the Holy Ghost. There is no way you can be a spirit filled Christian and not be full of joy, never! Only babes in Christ who don't realise who they are can live that way.

You might say, "With the things happening in my life, I need a change of environment; I need to travel somewhere I can really be happy." No! Don't look to anything external to give you joy. Joy is one of the fruits of your recreated human spirit. So, it's in you. Your spirit produces endless joy. It's called, "...joy unspeakable and full of glory" (1 Peter 1:8).

Be joyful ALWAYS! The Spirit of God does more for you in an atmosphere of joy and happiness than bleakness and misery. So, make up your mind to be joyful, today, and always.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have joy that comes from the inner man and transcends physical circumstances. My joy is of the Spirit, and independent of circumstances; I'm ever strong for the joy of the Lord is my strength! Hallelujah!

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

If you look at the state the world is in, there's hunger, poverty, insecurity, sickness and disease, death and despair – I could go on. But this is the difference between you and those suffering these worldly calamities: You are in Christ and He is in you. God never lied to us; He told us that we were going to experience tribulation, but he didn't end there. He said be of good cheer despite what you see, why? Because He already won the battle against ALL bad things hallelujah!

It's only when you look outside Christ that you become overwhelmed by troubles and corrupting influences in the world. He said, "In me, there's peace; cheer up." That's His Word unto you, nothing in this world can put you down.

There's success in life that's independent of the world's economics. True peace and prosperity are only found in Christ. Start speaking that peace and success. Declare it over your communities and nations. Stay in Christ, for in Christ you've overcome Satan, the world and its failing systems.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Despite a failing world - I am not moved by it. I move and live in Christ! I am blessed beyond measure and like any day, today is going to be just amazing! Amen.

Proverbs 3:7-8 (KJV)

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Who would've thought that fear brings you good health? When most Christians hear the word fear, they immediately think of it in the negative. The word fear here is the word 'Yare'; it means to reverence. It's a healthy kind of fear that holds God with the highest honour.

The one who understands reverence is the one who knows the mind of the Lord, and the one who knows the mind of the Lord can instruct God! God said, "I am the Lord ... that confirmeth the word of His servant, and performeth the counsel of His messengers" (Isaiah 44:26). When you follow the protocol of fear, you speak, and God backs up what you say with His own integrity!

Fear is a major component of the deeper life phase. It will cause you to choose things, not based on your appetite, but according to what God wants. Practise the dimension of reverence, of fear! Let your words be few. If you want to experience more or be used to do exploits in these end times, fear God!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I stand in reverence of the Lord God I serve! As a result, every word I speak is backed up by Him. I cannot fail today or ever in Jesus Mighty Name!

Proverbs 9:10

Psalm 86:11 (KJV)

Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

There are so many Christians who suffer from a serious deficiency of praying the wrong way. Some will pray long hours saying the wrong thing and wonder why things still don't work in their lives. Remember it's not about how long you pray but how right you pray.

So how does one pray based on today's scripture? David said 'unite' my heart, and this gives us a clue as to how we ought to pray. When you pray, focus your attention on the Lord, and be conscious of what you're praying about. Some people pray about so many things, and a moment later, they don't remember what they just said. If you don't remember what you prayed about, how would you know when God answers? So there needs to be a unity of heart, a focus on a specific desired outcome for a specific thing.

Unite your heart, turn off any distractions. Write your specific prayer points, meditate on scriptures that cover your case and expect an outcome, that's a heart united. When you have made your definite request to the Lord, rejoice and give Him glory, knowing that it's done.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

In this day and age, we hear constantly that your reputation is everything. You're most likely to get that business deal or access to that connection because of good reputation. People will even spend money they don't have just to uphold a certain reputation.

In today's scripture, we're told that our prime example; The Lord Jesus made himself of no reputation. It wasn't people who made him lose his reputation by slandering him, no, he made himself of no reputation, he chose it. He was focused on doing the Father's will and not that of those around him - he was focused on integrity.

As a Christian, you should have no reputation. Don't try to keep a reputation that keeps you looking good in the eyes of man yet your relationship with God is bad. Reputation is what man thinks of you, integrity is what God thinks of you. As long as God knows your heart that's what matters. Work on your relationship with your Father even more from this day – go even deeper. Integrity with Him is what counts!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am blessed to have integrity in the eyes of my God. I shall serve in the Kingdom with full focus on my calling and I am perfecting it from today in Jesus Mighty Name! Amen.
