HE NEVER LEAVES YOU

Matthew 28:20b (KJV)

Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

One of the key truths for believers is that God is always with you. Life can feel lonely, with peer pressure, school stress, or family issues, making you feel abandoned, but God never leaves your side. His presence is constant, even in challenging circumstances.

A biblical example is Elijah on Mount Horeb (1 Kings 19). Elijah felt alone, scared, and defeated after confronting the prophets of Baal. But God appeared not with a wind, fire, or earthquake, but in a gentle whisper. When you feel isolated, God's presence quietly guides, comforts, and strengthens you. His work may be subtle, but it is always effective.

It's easy to think you're facing life alone. However, God goes before you, stands beside you, and fights for you. He never abandons, never sleeps, and always understands your challenges. Trusting Him allows you to walk boldly, knowing you are never truly alone. Your confidence grows in His constant presence.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me feel Your presence in every moment. Strengthen my faith to trust that You are always with me. Amen

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God never leaves me. His presence surrounds me, protects me, and guides me every day. I walk boldly knowing I am never alone in Jesus Mighty name.

TALK LIKE JESUS

Matthew 12:34b (KJV)

For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

Your words are powerful containers; talking like Jesus means speaking from faith, authority, and revelation, not fear. Jesus said that knowing His identity and source carries life and results.

At Lazarus' tomb (John 11), He didn't doubt or panic; He declared what heaven had already decided: "Lazarus, come forth," and life responded. His words aligned with God's will, making the impossible bow.

Choosing words carefully is key. Instead of "I can't," say, "I can do all things through Christ." Speak God's promises instead of fear. When aligned with the Word, your words release faith and activate miracles. Thinking, believing, and living like Jesus involves speaking boldly and victoriously.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me guard my words and speak in faith. Teach me to align my speech with Your Word daily. Amen

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I talk like Jesus. My words are filled with faith, life, and authority. I speak God's truth, and my world responds in Jesus mighty name.

EXERCISE YOUR KINGDOM AUTHORITY

Luke 10:19 (KJV)

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

When you're born again, you gain salvation and kingdom authority and the legal right to act. Jesus didn't save you to live in fear; He restored your right to rule through Him.

In Mark 4:35-41, Jesus calmed the storm. The disciples panicked, but Jesus commanded the wind and waves, which obeyed Him. He expected the disciples to do the same because authority works when exercised.

Practising kingdom authority means speaking God's Word over fear, sickness, confusion, and temptation. Instead of pleading, you command in Jesus' name. Authority grows with understanding and confidence. The more you understand who you are in Christ, the bolder you'll speak and act. You were created to rule through Christ, not be controlled by circumstances.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, open my eyes to understand the authority You have given me in Christ. Help me walk boldly and speak Your Word with faith and confidence. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I exercise my kingdom authority boldly. I speak God's Word with confidence, and every situation aligns with heaven's will in Jesus mighty name.

OBEDIENCE

Isaiah 1:19(KJV)

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land.

Obedience is the highest form of honour you can give to God. It is not just about following rules; it is about trusting His voice above your own thoughts, feelings, or understanding. Obedience unlocks realms of favour, protection, and supernatural success.

God instructed Noah to build an ark even though rain had never been seen before. Noah didn't argue, question, or try to make sense of God's command; he obeyed. Obedience sometimes looks "illogical" to the natural mind, but it positions you for divine results. Noah's obedience saved him and his family. With obedience, destiny is preserved.

Obedience may feel difficult, whether it's obeying God's Word, your parents, or the Holy Spirit's instructions. But every act of obedience is a seed that produces blessing. When you obey quickly, you grow spiritually faster. When you follow consistently, you become unstoppable. Let obedience become your lifestyle.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, give me a heart that delights in obedience. Help me hear Your voice clearly and follow Your instructions without hesitation. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am obedient to God's voice. I follow His instructions quickly, joyfully, and boldly. My obedience opens doors of favour and aligns me with divine destiny in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

MANAGING YOUR EMOTIONS

Proverbs 16:32(KJV)

He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

True strength isn't physical, but controlling your inner emotions. Emotions are gifts from God, but when they guide you instead of you guiding them, they can hinder your destiny. Spiritual maturity involves governing emotions rather than letting them rule you.

David, facing King Saul's jealousy, had reasons for anger or revenge, but he chose restraint when he found Saul sleeping, managing his emotions instead of acting out of hurt or fear. He succeeded because he let the Holy Spirit guide his decisions, preparing him for kingship.

Emotions like anger, sadness, or frustration can feel intense, but they are signals, not rulers. You can experience them without obeying. With the Holy Spirit, you can pause, breathe, pray, and respond wisely. Mastering emotions equals mastering your future.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me to rule my emotions with the strength of the Holy Spirit. Give me wisdom to respond with love, patience, and clarity. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am in command of my emotions. I operate from the Holy Spirit, not my feelings. I walk in peace, wisdom, and supernatural self-control every day in the mighty name of Jesus.

BORN OF THE WORD

1 Peter 1:23(KJV)

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

Once born again, you become a child of the Word; recreated from God's Word, not human DNA. These roots shape your identity, potential, and future in the supernatural. Your past, mistakes, or circumstances don't define you; you're moulded by the Word you're born from.

When Jesus faced temptation, He didn't rely on emotions or opinions, but on the Word. Each time Satan attacked, Jesus declared, "It is written," Showing His nature in action as the Word made flesh. Since you're born of the Word, it should be your first response, strength, and weapon.

Being born of the Word helps you conquer fear, peer pressure, self-doubt, and trials. The Word inside grants wisdom and strength beyond your natural capacity. It signifies you're created from something eternal, unbreakable, and mighty. Live each day assured: You are a product of the living Word.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me to live daily in the consciousness that I am born from Your Word. Teach me to respond to every situation with the truth of Scripture. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am born of the Word. I am strong, unshakeable, and full of divine life. The Word of God is my identity and my victory in Jesus' mighty name.

CHRIST LIVES IN YOU

Colossians 1:27b (KJV)

...Christ in you, the hope of glory.

The most significant revelation a Christian can receive is that Christ not only walks with you but lives in you. This transforms your view of yourself, challenges, and future. You're not ordinary; you're a carrier of divinity.

Peter's story exemplifies this. Before the Holy Spirit, he was fearful and unstable, denying Jesus thrice. After the revelation, he became bold, healing the sick with his shadow and speaking with heaven's authority. The change was the awakening of Christ within, not a personality change.

When you realise Christ in you, you stop seeing yourself as weak. You act from confidence that you and Christ are one; nothing can defeat you. Christ in you means wisdom, power, courage, and victory. You're unstoppable because He is in you.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me grow in the revelation that Christ lives in me. Strengthen my confidence to walk in the power and identity You placed inside me. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Christ lives in me. I carry His power, His mind, and His glory. I walk boldly knowing I am one with Him in Jesus' name.

Psalm 118:24 (KJV)

This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Joy is not something to delay; it's a choice made now. Many wait for perfect conditions to enjoy life, but God designed joy for the present. Knowing your identity in Christ reveals joy as part of your spiritual nature, not a reward for good circumstances.

Paul & Silas were in prison, beaten, chained, and unjustly locked away, yet at midnight, they prayed and sang praises to God (Acts 16). Instead of complaining, they enjoyed God's presence there. Their joy activated supernatural power; chains broke, doors opened, and lives changed. Their attitude changed first, not the situation.

As a teenager, it's easy to think happiness comes later, after school, success, or easier times. But God wants you to enjoy life now. You can laugh, dream, grow, and worship in every season. Joy keeps your heart light and spirit strong, no matter what. Life is happening now. Choose to enjoy God's gift today.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, teach me to enjoy the life You have given me today. Help me find joy in Your presence, no matter the situation. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I choose joy today! I enjoy life right now because God is with me. My happiness is constant, supernatural, and unstoppable in Jesus mighty name.

BEST FRIENDS OF GOD

John 15:15 (KJV)

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends.

Christianity centres on a relationship with God, not distance. God desires closeness, seeking friendship. Being God's friend means receiving His trust, thoughts, and plans, and gaining access to divine secrets and guidance.

Abraham, known as the friend of God, had a special relationship with Him. God shared His plans openly with Abraham and entrusted him with great responsibility. Their friendship was founded on faith and obedience. Because Abraham had complete trust in God, He revealed things to him that others could not see. Friendship with God always begins with trust.

It's easy to see God as distant, but He wants to walk with you daily, talk with you, guide you, and laugh with you. Prayer and the Word bring you closer. Friendship with God changes your life, decisions, and view of yourself. You're not just saved; you're chosen for friendship.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, help me grow closer to You as a friend. Teach me to trust You fully and walk with You every day. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a friend of God. I hear His voice, walk in His wisdom, and enjoy intimacy with Him daily. My relationship with God grows deeper every day in Jesus mighty name.

WHAT IS JOY ANYWAY?

Nehemiah 8:10b (KJV)

...The joy of the Lord is your strength.

Joy is not the same as happiness. Happiness depends on what is happening around you, but joy comes from what is happening within you. Joy is a spiritual force released when you understand your position in Christ. It is strength, confidence, and peace all working together inside your spirit.

Hebrews 12:2 says Jesus endured the cross for the joy set before Him. Despite pain, rejection, and suffering, He operated from joy because He saw beyond the moment. Joy helps us rise above pressure and stay focused on God's purpose. Jesus wasn't joyful because of the pain; He was joyful because He knew the victory ahead.

Life can feel confusing, stressful, or overwhelming at times. But joy is not something you wait for; it's something you activate. When you praise God, meditate on His Word, and remember who lives inside you, joy rises naturally. Joy reminds you that God is in control and your future is secure. Joy is your inner confidence that God's plan will always win.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me understand true joy that comes from You. Teach me to walk in joy no matter what I face. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The joy of the Lord is my strength. I choose joy over fear, worry, and pressure. I live confidently, peacefully, and strongly every day in Jesus' name.

SHACHAH

Psalm 95:6 (KJV)

O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

Worship is more than singing songs; it is a posture of the heart. The Hebrew word Shachah means to bow down, to kneel, or to surrender oneself completely before God. True worship happens when your heart, mind, and spirit submit fully to God's presence.

Shachah is found in Abraham's life when God asked him to offer Isaac (Genesis 22). Abraham told his servants, "The lad and I will go yonder and worship. That word 'worship' is Shachah. Abraham's worship was not emotional; it was obedience mixed with trust. Even in a difficult moment, Abraham bowed his will to God, believing that God was faithful. His act of worship unlocked a divine intervention and a powerful blessing.

Worship isn't just at church; it's how you live daily. By obeying God, honouring Him with choices, and surrendering fears, you practice Shachah. Worship invites God's presence and heaven's response. Bowing in worship lifts you in victory.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, teach me true worship that comes from surrender. Help me honour You not just with my words, but with my life. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I worship God in spirit and in truth. I live a life of surrender and honour. As I bow before Him, He lifts me into victory in Jesus mighty name.

HOW TO FLOW IN GOODNESS

Psalm 23:6 (KJV)

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.

Goodness isn't something you chase; it flows naturally from a life aligned with God. When you understand your identity in Christ, goodness becomes your atmosphere. You don't struggle to do good; you flow in it because God's nature works through you.

Joseph, betrayed, sold into slavery and imprisoned, never let bitterness control him. Instead, he acted with excellence, kindness, and integrity. His awareness of God's presence everywhere made him live in goodness, which brought him favour from Potiphar's house to the palace.

Following goodness means choosing the correct response even when life feels unfair. It involves speaking kindly, forgiving quickly, and trusting God when things don't make sense. Goodness is a spiritual flow powered by the Holy Spirit. Staying connected to God through prayer and His Word allows goodness to flow naturally. Remember, goodness is strength, not weakness.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me stay connected to You so Your goodness flows through me daily. Teach me to respond with kindness and faith in every situation. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I flow in the goodness of God. My life attracts favour, kindness, and divine opportunities. Everywhere I go, goodness follows me in Jesus mighty name.

HAVE TEMPERANCE

2 Peter 1:6 (KJV)

And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness.

Temperance is self control, and it is a mark of spiritual maturity. Temperance does not mean suppressing emotions or desires; it means allowing the Holy Spirit to guide your choices rather than impulses. When you have temperance, you live intentionally and powerfully.

Daniel, as a young man taken into Babylon, was offered the king's food and lifestyle. Instead of giving in to pressure, Daniel chose discipline and obedience to God. His temperance set him apart and positioned him for divine favour. Because Daniel exercised self control, God released wisdom, excellence, and supernatural promotion into his life.

As a teenager, you face daily temptations like peer pressure, anger, distraction, and unhealthy habits. Temperance helps you say "no" to what weakens you and "yes" to what strengthens your spirit. It keeps your focus sharp and your heart aligned with God's purpose. Self control is not a limitation; it is freedom to live at your best. When you practice temperance, you build character that can carry God's blessings.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, strengthen me with self control through Your Spirit. Help me make choices that honour You and protect my future. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have temperance through the Holy Spirit. I am disciplined, focused, and led by God's wisdom. My life reflects maturity and excellence in Jesus mighty name.

LOVE GOD AND LOVE YOUR BROTHER

Matthew 22:39 (KJV)

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Loving God and loving people are inseparable. You cannot truly love God without reflecting that love in how you treat others. God's love is not just something you feel in worship. It is something you express daily through kindness, forgiveness, and compassion.

A powerful story in the Bible is the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-37). While others ignored the injured man, the Samaritan chose love over convenience. Love is proven by action, not words. The Samaritan didn't ask questions or look for excuses; he responded with care. This kind of love mirrors God's heart and reveals Christ to the world.

Loving your brother can mean forgiving, defending, or showing patience with family. When you love, you show God lives in you. Love keeps your heart pure and spirit strong, allowing God to work through you. Choosing love means walking like Jesus.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, fill my heart with Your love. Help me love others the way You love me, without conditions. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

OBEDIENCE IS A LONELY AFFAIR

Genesis 12:1 (KJV)

And the Lord said unto Abram, get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee.

Obedience often isolates before it elevates. When God gives instructions, He may not explain every detail or seek others' approval. Though lonely, obedience is purposeful, pushing you beyond comfort zones to reveal your destiny.

When God told Abraham to leave his home and family, he had no map, no timeline, and no crowd cheering him on. Abraham's obedience was personal. It was between him and God. Though the journey was lonely, the reward was a generational blessing. Because Abraham obeyed, nations were born from his faith.

Choosing obedience may mean standing alone when others compromise, mock your faith, or take an easier path. But remember, God often hides His most significant rewards on paths few are willing to walk. Obedience may cost you approval, but it will never cost you God's presence. When you obey God, you may walk alone, but you are never without Him.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, grant me courage to obey You, even when lonely. Strengthen my heart to trust Your voice above all. Amen.

HOW TO EXERCISE YOUR FAITH

Romans 10:17 (KJV)

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Faith is like a muscle; the more you use it, the stronger it becomes. Faith is not passive; it is active, intentional, and expressed through words and actions. You don't wait to feel faith; you exercise it by believing, speaking, and acting on God's Word.

When Peter walked on water, he wasn't confident in the waves but in Jesus' word (Matthew 14:28-31). Faith begins when you act on what God says, even in unstable conditions. Peter stepped out in faith; when he looked at the storm, fear arose. Faith grows when focus remains on the Word, not the storm.

Exercising your faith involves speaking God's promises over your life, trusting Him in exams, friendships, and decisions, and refusing to let fear have the final say. Every time you choose faith, you strengthen your spirit. Small steps of faith today prepare you for greater victories tomorrow. Faith works best when you put it into action.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, teach me to exercise my faith through Your Word. Help me keep my focus on You and not on circumstances. Amen.

CALLED TO INHERIT ALL THINGS

Romans 8:17 (KJV)

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Salvation made you an heir, not poor or limited. An heir is entitled to their Father's possessions. God intended His children to inherit all things, changing your view of faith and future.

In Luke 15, the prodigal son's story shows the younger son wasted his inheritance, but the older son didn't realise that everything the father had, belonged to him. Many believers, like the older son, are faithful but unaware of their inheritance. The father's words, "All that I have is thine," reveal that inheritance was already theirs.

Knowing your inheritance helps you live confidently. You inherit wisdom, peace, favour, joy, authority, and provision in Christ. These blessings are accessible now through faith. When you recognise who you are, fear diminishes. You're not earning blessings; you're receiving what's already yours.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, open my eyes to understand my inheritance in Christ. Help me walk confidently in what You have already given me. Amen.

THE GREATEST GIFT

2 Corinthians 9:15 (KJV)

Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

The most precious gift God gave humanity isn't wealth, success, or possessions, but Jesus Christ Himself. All other blessings flow from this gift. Recognising this helps us focus on developing a relationship rather than material pursuits. Jesus exemplifies God's love, grace, and power toward us.

In Jesus' birth (Luke 2), while the world anticipated a king in a palace, God sent His Son into a manger. Angels announced His arrival, and wise men travelled great distances to worship Him. God took eternity and wrapped it in human form to give Himself to us. Jesus' mission was not merely to visit the world but to live within us and restore our relationship with God.

Many think the best gifts are material things like phones or achievements. But the greatest gift is salvation, love, peace, and eternal life. Through Jesus, you're forgiven, loved, and empowered. Accepting this gift opens access to heaven's blessings.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, thank You for the gift of the Lord Jesus Christ. Help me value and live in the fullness of what You have given me through Him. Amen.

IN HIM YOU HAVE THE VICTORY

1 Corinthians 15:57 (KJV)

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Victory is not something you fight to attain; it is something you live because of your identity in Christ. Jesus already won the battle through His death and resurrection, and when you are in Him, His victory becomes yours. This means you don't face life as a victim but as a conqueror.

In the story of David and Goliath (1 Samuel 17), David didn't go into battle trusting his size or experience. He went in the name of the Lord. He understood the covenant. He knew God was with him. Because of that revelation, the giant fell. David's victory was not based on strength but on relationship.

You may face fear, pressure, insecurity, or doubt, but you're not alone. In Christ, you have the upper hand. Victory in Him brings peace, courage, and confidence. Staying mindful of your identity in Christ helps you rise above opposition and secure victory.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, thank You for the victory I have in Christ. Help me live boldly from this truth every day. Amen.

FUEL THE FIRE WITHIN

2 Timothy 1:6 (KJV)

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

Every believer has a divine fire of purpose, passion, and the Holy Spirit, ignited when you received Christ. It must be fuelled intentionally, as fire grows when fed and fades when neglected. God placed gifts inside you, and it's your responsibility to stir them up.

Jeremiah felt discouraged and said God's Word was like "a burning fire shut up in my bones" (Jeremiah 20:9). When fuelled by intimacy with God, this fire can't be quenched. Jeremiah's fire kept him speaking, believing, and standing firm amid challenges.

You fuel this fire through prayer, reading the Word, worship, and staying connected to godly voices. Feed your spirit daily to avoid dryness. When your fire burns, fear diminishes, confidence rises, and purpose becomes clear. Don't let distractions, doubt, or pressure extinguish what God ignited.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me to fuel the fire You placed within me continually. Teach me to stay spiritually alert and passionate for You. Amen

YOU'RE A NEW CREATION

2 Corinthians 5:17 (KJV)

Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

Salvation is not about behaviour modification; it is a complete renewal. When you receive Christ, God doesn't just repair your old life; He gives you a completely new one, called in Hebrew Kainos. Your past no longer defines you. Your identity is now rooted in Christ, not in mistakes, labels, or opinions.

Saul was once a persecutor of Christians, but after meeting Jesus on the road to Damascus, everything changed (Acts 9). Paul did not slowly become new; he became new instantly. His past no longer dictated his future. God renamed him, redirected him, and released him into purpose.

You may sometimes feel trapped by who you used to be or what others say about you. But in Christ, you have a new nature, new desires, and new potential. You are not trying to become new; you already are. The more you grasp this truth, the more confidently you will live. Being a new creation means you can start anew every day with boldness and joy.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, help me fully understand my new identity in Christ. Teach me to live confidently in the new life You have given me. Amen.

YOUR WORLD NEEDS YOU

Matthew 5:14 (KJV)

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

You were not born by accident; you were sent with purpose. God placed you in this generation, in your school, family, and community because your world needs what God put inside you. You carry light, answers, creativity, and influence that no one else can deliver in the same way.

Many wait until they are older, more confident, or more “qualified” to make a difference. But God uses willing hearts, not perfect people. When Jesus walked the earth, He chose ordinary individuals and transformed them into world changers. Impact flows from identity; when you know who you are in Christ, your mere presence begins to shift atmospheres.

Your words, faith, kindness, boldness, and obedience matter. You preach daily through your life, offering courage, love, and faith. Light simply shines; never diminish your influence. When you live as God made you, you’re backed by heaven and are God’s answer in your space.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me see myself as You see me. Use my life to bring light, hope, and change to my world. Amen.

THE LIVING WATER IS IN YOU

John 4:14 (KJV)

But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

Christianity is about living from the divine life within, not searching for God externally. Jesus revealed that living water would not just visit us; it would live in us. This living water is the life of Christ through the Holy Spirit, constantly refreshing, strengthening, and guiding you.

When Jesus met the Samaritan woman at the well, she came thirsty for natural water, but Jesus offered her something greater: spiritual life that never runs dry. Jesus shifted her focus from an external source to an internal reality. Once she received that revelation, her life changed, and she became a witness to her entire city.

You may feel empty, tired, or pressured at times, but don't seek fulfillment in popularity, approval, or possessions. The living water is within you. You're a carrier of divine life and the DNA of Christ.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me live consciously of the living water inside me. Teach me to draw from Your life in every situation. Amen.

IN CHRIST

Colossians 3:4a (KJV)

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear...

Apostle Paul was writing here to a church he did not start, and he was giving them the foundation of Christianity, which is Christ, our life. All throughout this letter he enforces their identity, saying things like “Christ in you”, “Christ, our life”, “ye have put on the new man”, “Christ is all, and in all” etc. Our identity in Christ is actually the main theme of this letter. Why is this important?

The growth of the knowledge of your identity brings greater levels of grace (2 Peter 1:2), or it brings transformation into your potential in Christ (Colossians 3:10, 2 Corinthians 3:18), and this growth is conditioned by where you look. Hebrews 12:2 says that our eyes should look unto “Jesus the author and finisher of our faith”. So, you see, Apostle Paul was trying to have the colossians root their faith in their identity in Christ.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, I am so thankful that I am among Your children and I am maturing by the discovery of my identity in Christ, more and more every day, from glory to glory by Your Spirit, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

As I look at the Lord Jesus, I get to know Him better daily and I am transformed by that knowledge, looking more like Him every day.

RIGHTEOUSNESS

Romans 8:10 (KJV)

And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

In Christ, because of the blood of Jesus, we have been brought into a legal situation where sin has lost the authority to separate us from God, as you know happened with Adam and Eve. In other words we have been brought into righteousness, in a state of unity between us and God. Here, in Christ, we are His vessels and His life is expressed in us and through us, and it is all because of righteousness.

Without righteousness there is no unity with God, but with it everything that God has can be expressed in you and through you. This life is by faith, and that faith is rooted in your identity in Christ. The more you know Him, the more you express Him.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Dear Father, thank You for righteousness, because of it Your life is flowing in and out of me bringing Your will on Earth as it is in Heaven. Hallelujah.

WORKING TOGETHER

2 Timothy 1:3 (KJV)

I thank God that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers...

Apostle Paul, more than once in his writings, thanks God for praying for certain people. We know that when we thank someone for something, it is because of that person had something to do with what we are thankful for. So, it seems that Apostle Paul considered that it was actually God who would give him prayer points.

In another passage he says that “we are laborers together with God”, or “laboring fervently for you in prayers”. Isn’t this wonderful, this shift in mentality in prayer is quite liberating. It is no longer trying to convince God, but working with Him to bring something into manifestation.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father, I thank You for making me Your heir and a joint heir with Christ. I am so thankful that You use me to advance the Kingdom and to bring your will into manifestation.

THE ART OF SURRENDERING

Philippians 3:8 (NKJV)

Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ.

Surrender isn't about giving up but about giving God full access to your life. True surrender shows your value. When you see Christ clearly, everything else becomes secondary. Surrender flows from understanding who Jesus is and who you are in Him.

In Scripture, Apostle Paul states that everything he valued, status, achievements, ambition, was nothing compared to knowing Christ. Paul was powerful in revelation and knew that gaining Christ was greater than worldly offers. Surrender is an exchange: letting go of the limited to receive the eternal.

Surrender is tough, especially when trusting God with your future, friendships, dreams, or reputation. It doesn't erase your identity but reveals it. Yielding to Christ shapes decisions and guides you without losing control. God invites you to surrender to His fullness, making obedience easy, joy natural, and purpose clear.

PRAYER FOR YOU TODAY

Lord Jesus, help me to see You as my greatest treasure. Teach me to surrender willingly and trust You completely with my life. Amen

GUARD YOUR MIND

Philippians 4:8 (KJV)

Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

In a noisy world, protecting your mind is vital because it influences your words, choices, and destiny. When aligned with God's truth, your life reflects His peace, power, and purpose.

Be selective with influences; not all voices deserve access to your thoughts. Social media, peer pressure, fear, and negative self talk can weaken confidence if unchecked. God encourages filtering thoughts through His Word and focusing on what is true, pure, and praiseworthy.

Filling your mind with God's Word creates spiritual protection. Peace replaces anxiety, faith silences doubt, and clarity overcomes confusion. A renewed mind is powerful; it shapes your future. Victory starts in the mind; guard it well to walk confidently in God's plan.

Father, I ask You to help me guard my mind and thoughts today. Fill my heart with Your truth and give me the discipline to focus on what honours You. Amen.

PNEUMA

The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

The Greek Pneuma means spirit, breath, or wind, representing the Holy Spirit as God's breath working within you. Jesus describes the Spirit as the wind, inaudible but powerful. While invisible, the Holy Spirit's presence brings change, direction, and divine strength.

Embracing Pneuma means being aware of the Holy Spirit in daily life. He acts as Comforter, Counsellor, and Helper, providing wisdom, strength, and clarity during uncertain times. The Holy Spirit enables believers to live supernaturally, guided by divine insight instead of circumstances.

Pneuma gives spiritual gifts to serve, encourage, and build others in love. As you yield to Him, He reveals God's purpose and glory. The more you engage with God through prayer, the Word, and fellowship, the more you sense the Holy Spirit's guidance.

STRANGE FAVOUR

Luke 2:52 (KJV)

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

Strange favour defies human logic, occurring when God unexpectedly works in your favour, surprising everyone, including yourself. In this Year of Strange Oil, favour is a divine advantage that gives you an edge, even if you seem unqualified. It isn't earned but flows from divine alignment.

Joseph experienced strange favour: despite betrayal and imprisonment, God's hand favoured him before guards and Pharaoh (Genesis 39-41). Rejection and limitations come, but extra favour overcomes circumstances, opening doors no one expects.

Strange favour is activated when you enter God's presence and trust His Word. Your confidence is not in what you see but in Christ within. Knowing your identity in Him makes you anticipate the extraordinary favour. In school, family, friendships, and your future, God's favour will set you apart. Others may struggle, but God will make a way for you.

It is so with you, with your tongue, it maps the direction where you are headed when used with intent and faith. Because of your identity in Christ and the manifold grace therein, you can navigate from one treasure to another, steering your ship with the help of your tongue.

BREAKING TRADITION

Matthew 13:58 (KJV)

“And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.”

A tradition is a belief or habit passed down from generation to generation. As young people, many of us grow up shaped by what we hear, see, and experience. Some traditions build us up, but others limit our thinking and tell us what we can or cannot become. Over time, these beliefs can quietly control our choices and confidence.

The Bible says that when Jesus went back to His hometown, He could not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief. It did not say He chose not to, it says He could not. Their mindset blocked the move of God. This shows us that unbelief and negative traditions can stop great things, even when God is ready to act. Today is your opportunity to break free. You do not have to accept negative patterns like failure, struggle, or limitation.

Lord, thank You for reminding me that my future is in Your hands. Strengthen me to overcome every limitation and step boldly into the destiny You have prepared for me.

LET YOUR WORDS COUNT

1 Corinthians 14:10 (KJV)

There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

Our verse for today tells us every sound has meaning. Every word you speak produces results, especially as a young person shaping your future. God has given you a voice, and He expects you to use it wisely. Your words are not just sounds, they are tools that can build confidence, open doors, and shape your mindset.

Speaking God's Word over your life creates positive pathways for His promises to manifest. Faith-filled words help you stay focused, motivated, and aligned with God's purpose. That is why you should be careful with negative language. Constantly saying "I cannot do this" or "I will never make it" trains your mind to expect lack and failure. Instead, choose words that reflect hope, growth, and trust in God.

BE AN ENCOURAGER

Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

In today's world of social media, spotlights, and achievements, we often see trophies, applause, likes, and celebrations. But behind every win is someone who encouraged the journey.

For young people especially, encouragement can be the difference between giving up and pushing forward. An encourager is that friend, mentor, or family member who believed in you when you doubted yourself. They reminded you of your potential, pushed you to keep going, and helped you grow into who God created you to be. Paul reminds us that encouragement is not optional for believers; it is our responsibility. As a Christian, your words, attitude, and actions may be the first example of Christ someone ever sees.

You may wonder, if God is with me, why am I struggling? Why did I lose that opportunity? Why does my situation feel stuck?

Though you may feel that way, it does not cancel how God sees you. Gideon was met by God in a low and hidden place, the threshing floor, during a season of national trouble. LOOK IN THE MIRROR

You might spend a lot of time looking in mirrors before school, outings, or photos, checking hair, outfits, and appearance. A physical mirror shows only the outside.

The Bible introduces a different kind of mirror: the Word of God. When you look into God's Word, you do not just see how you look, you see who you are becoming. Scripture reveals your true identity in Christ: blessed, chosen, loved, and empowered.

The more time you spend reading and reflecting on God's Word, the more your mindset, character, and confidence begin to change.

DEEPENING THE DEPTH

Romans 11:33 (NLT)

Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

As young people, it is easy to think we have reached a peak with God, especially when things are going well or we feel spiritually confident. But there is always more of God to discover. God is limitless, and no one ever fully “arrives” when it comes to knowing Him.

Even angels constantly see new sides of God. They call Him holy again and again because every move of God reveals something fresh. God is not repetitive or boring; He is deep, creative, and endlessly powerful. Every person who walked closely with God in the Bible experienced Him uniquely. Abraham encountered God as a friend, showing that intimacy with God leads to deeper experiences. The more time you spend praying, reading the Word, and trusting God, the more your understanding grows.

He targets young people with thoughts like “You are not good enough,” “You will fail,” or “This runs in your family.” His goal is simple, get you to believe a lie.

In emergencies, people call 911 for immediate help. Spiritually, God has already given you a direct line, His presence. Psalm 91 reminds us that when you stay close to God, you live under His protection.

There is no secret place out there, Jesus is the secret place and He is living on the inside of you. When you have that understanding instead of resorting to panic you can choose prayer. When trouble shows up unexpectedly, God is not scrambling, He is already there.

Make His presence your daily habit. When you stay close, storms do not destroy you, they develop you. God is your spiritual emergency response, always available and never offline.

Lord, help me dwell in Your presence daily. Let me live secure, fearless, and protected in every circumstance, relying fully on You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WHO YOU ARE AND WHOSE YOU ARE

1 Peter 2:9 (KJV)

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people.

One of the biggest challenges young people face is identity. The world constantly tries to label you by success, mistakes, popularity, or background. But God's Word tells a different story. Who you are is defined by who you belong to. You are not an accident, a mistake, or a statistic. You are chosen by God, loved intentionally, and created with purpose.

Knowing who you are gives confidence, but knowing whose you are gives security. You belong to God, and that changes everything. When you understand this, comparison loses power, fear weakens, and peer pressure fades. You stop seeking approval from people and start living from God's acceptance. Your value does not come from achievements or opinions, it comes from your relationship with Him.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, thank you that I belong to You. Strengthen my confidence, protect my identity, and let me walk boldly in Your purpose. In Jesus' name, Amen.

UNASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL

Romans 1:16 (KJV)

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation.

In today's culture, being bold about your faith can feel uncomfortable. Social pressure, opinions, and fear of being judged often make people silent about what they believe. But the gospel was never meant to be hidden. It is power, real power that changes lives, hearts, and futures.

Being unashamed means standing firm in truth even when it is unpopular. When you live out your faith with confidence, kindness, and conviction, people notice. Your life becomes proof that God is real and active. The gospel transformed you, and it can transform others too. Do not shrink your faith to fit in. The same message that saved you is still powerful today. Let your words, actions, and choices reflect Christ.

TRENDSETTERS

Matthew 5:14 (KJV)

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

The world constantly pushes trends about what to wear, how to think, and who to be. But as a Christian, you are not called to follow culture, you are called to influence it. God designed you to be a trendsetter, not a follower. True influence is not about popularity, it is about impact.

When you live by God's standards, you set a different tone. Your integrity, kindness, discipline, and faith speak louder than trends that fade quickly. As a young person, you carry light into dark places. People are watching how you respond, how you treat others, and what you stand for. Do not underestimate the power of living differently.

When God is leading you, your life becomes a new pattern others want to follow. You become an example that inspires others to align with God's ways. Stand firm in His light and influence culture by reflecting Christ in every action and decision.

SET APART (HOLY)

1 Peter 1:16 (KJV)

Be ye holy; for I am holy.

When people think of the word Holy and when the word of God calls you holy they automatically think of being perfect, and making no mistakes. But the true definition of the word Holy simply means being set apart. Being set apart means you are set apart from the world. Your values, decisions, and lifestyle reflect Christ.

God already chose you. Holiness is not about perfection, it is about direction. When you live set apart, you walk in clarity, peace, and purpose. The world will always try to make you feel like you're missing out but true fulfilment is found in Jesus Christ.

When you are truly set apart, it's not just about being separated from the world but also separated unto God. The more you spend in prayer and the Word, your thoughts and actions will reflect a separated life.

ARE YOU THE ONE?

Isaiah 6:8 (KJV)

Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?

God is still asking this question today, not just to leaders, but to young people willing to say yes. You do not need to be perfect or fully prepared, just available. God often uses the willing before the qualified. It is God himself who qualifies the called. If you are faithful where you are, God will position you for more. Your obedience could be the answer someone is praying for.

When reading today's scripture, you can see a question is being asked. God is actively looking for those who want to be used, your "yes" today may be someone's breakthrough tomorrow.

Stand ready to serve in school, family, community, and church. Step forward with faith, knowing that God can use you in powerful ways. Saying yes positions you for blessing, influence, and fruitfulness.

ALREADY FORGIVEN

Ephesians 1:7 (KJV)

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins.

Many young people live weighed down by guilt from past mistakes. But forgiveness is not something you earn, it is something Jesus already provided. You do not move forward by punishing yourself, you move forward by accepting grace. When God forgives, He does not bring it back up. Neither should you. Holding onto guilt hinders growth, confidence, and destiny.

Release the past and accept God's mercy. Your mistakes do not define your identity or limit your future. Freedom comes when you fully believe Christ's sacrifice covers every wrong. Living forgiven allows you to pursue purpose boldly. Your relationships, decisions, and actions improve when grace governs your heart.

God's forgiveness restores hope and opens doors. Walk daily knowing your sins are washed and your future is bright. You have to live with a righteousness consciousness mindset, not a sin consciousness mindset.

LOVED

Jeremiah 31:3 (KJV)

Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

In a world where love often feels conditional, many young people grow up thinking they must earn affection through success, popularity, or perfection. Social media, relationships, and expectations constantly suggest that love depends on performance. But God's love works differently. His love is not based on what you do, it is rooted in who He is. God loved you before you ever knew Him. He loved you in your confusion, mistakes, and growth.

His love does not fluctuate with your emotions or progress. It is steady, unchanging, and eternal. That means you do not have to prove your worth to be accepted by Him, you already are. Understanding God's love changes how you see yourself. When you know you are loved, insecurity loses its grip. You stop chasing approval from people and start living from God's acceptance.

SAY NO TO FEAR

2 Timothy 1:7 (KJV)

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Fear is one of the biggest weapons used against young people. It shows up as fear of failure, rejection, the future, or not being good enough. Fear tries to keep you stuck, silent, and unsure of yourself. But the Bible is clear, fear does not come from God. God did not place fear in you.

Fear exaggerates problems and minimizes God's ability, but faith does the opposite. Faith reminds you that God is present, capable, and faithful. Saying no to fear does not mean you never feel nervous. It means you refuse to let fear make your decisions.

Your future is too important to be ruled by fear. God has plans for your life, speak God's word when fear speaks lies.

CHECK YOUR MOTIVES

Proverbs 16:2 (KJV)

All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

It is easy to focus on actions and appearances, especially in a generation shaped by visibility and validation. Many young people do the right things but for the wrong reasons, seeking approval, attention, or recognition. God, however, looks deeper than behavior. He examines the heart and weighs motives.

Motives determine the direction and impact of your life. Two people can do the same thing, but only one may be pleasing to God. When your motives are pure, your actions carry lasting fruit. When motives are mixed, even good actions can lead to frustration or pride. Checking your motives means regularly asking yourself why you are doing this. Is it to please God or to impress people?

God desires sincerity, humility, and obedience from the heart. When your motives are aligned with His will, your life becomes focused, effective, and pleasing to Him.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me align my motives with Yours. Let everything I do honor You and produce lasting fruit in my life. In Jesus' name, Amen.

GOD'S LOVE LANGUAGE

John 14:15 (KJV)

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

You may have heard of the term “love languages”, the ways people express love based on how they want to receive it. Some show love through words, others through actions, gifts, or time. But have you ever thought about God’s love language? How does the Creator of the universe receive love? Our scripture today gives the answer: by following His Word.

Saying you love God with words alone is not enough. The Bible shows us this through Abraham, who demonstrated his love by his willingness to sacrifice Isaac. By obeying God’s command, Abraham proved his love in action.

The moment God sees you following His Word and living it out, that is the moment He knows you truly love Him. Aligning your choices with His instructions, doing what He says when He says it, and walking in obedience bridges the gap between knowing God and experiencing His presence. True love for God is shown through faithful action.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Lord, help me express my love for You through obedience. Let my life reflect Your will in every action and decision. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

WHY JESUS?

John 14:6 (KJV)

In a world filled with options and voices claiming to have answers, Jesus stands alone as the ultimate truth. No other leader in history has boldly declared that He is the way, the truth, and the life. Jesus is not just a teacher or prophet, He is the embodiment of love, peace, and life itself.

From Genesis to Revelation, the Bible points to Him as the center of God's plan and the foundation of humanity's purpose. Jesus is the Prince of Peace, the Root of Jesse, the Sun of Righteousness, the Lion of Judah, the Lamb of God, and the Author and Finisher of our faith. He is El Shaddai, the Word of God, and the Lord of all. Without Him, nothing exists.

RELOAD

Luke 5:16 (KJV)

And He withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

Throughout scripture, time and time again you would see the Lord Jesus retreat and go for a time of Prayer. Each time He would do this before performing miracles. Yet, despite the busyness, Jesus consistently withdrew to pray. If Jesus understood the importance of recharging in prayer, you also have to understand this. Prayer was His source of power.

It is easy to burn out if we rely only on our energy. Jesus teaches that true power comes from connecting with God. Stepping aside to pray, meditate on the Word, and realign with God releases fresh energy and authority. Prayer is the “reload button” for your spirit. When you pray, you open doors to miracles, breakthroughs, and supernatural power. Diseases, obstacles, and strongholds lose their hold.

Your influence expands because you operate in God’s dimension, not just human strength. Make prayer a priority. Let it recharge your spirit daily.

Every assignment, talent, and responsibility is a seed that grows when planted promptly. The more you delay, the more excuses you will have. Procrastination also trains your mind to settle for mediocrity. The Bible calls you to diligence. Acting now, even imperfectly, builds momentum. GRACE IS NOT A LICENSE TO SIN

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

Many young believers misunderstand grace, thinking God's forgiveness allows reckless living. Grace is not a free pass, it is empowerment to live righteously. God's grace covers mistakes, but it also teaches you to say no to sin.

When you abuse grace, you block the fullness of God's blessings. Sin may give temporary pleasure, but it produces long-term consequences. Living under grace means living in freedom, not bondage. It is a call to holiness and obedience, not indulgence. Youth is a season of shaping habits, building character, and establishing purpose.

Negativity is a thief of dreams. Many young people allow toxic words, thoughts, or environments to shape their future. Gossip, self-doubt, and pessimism drain energy and creativity. You cannot thrive in a negative mindset.

The Bible tells us that your words alone carry life and death (Proverbs 18:21), and how your thoughts define you (Proverbs 23:7). So when it comes to negative thinking or talking it's not something you should take lightly. God used His imagination and His words to create the world.

BELIEVING VERSUS FAITH

Romans 10:10 (NIV)

For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.

Believing is not faith, and faith is not believing. Just as a lion is not a zebra, and a zebra is not a lion. Believing is only the starting point, but it cannot change the circumstances if substance is not added to it. Faith on the other hand, changes the circumstances.

What is faith, and what is believing then? Faith is acting upon what you believe, whilst believing is done in the heart and ends there. So, faith is believing that has been expressed through actions outside the heart. Teens if you say you believe God's Word but won't act on it, it will be unproductive.

God's Word must be acted upon, and when it is acted upon after the heart has believed, and your external actions correspond with what you believe on the inside, faith is formed. Faith should be a daily practice for every born-again Christian. Hear more of God's Word and act on it, your Faith will increase.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Heavenly Father, today I come before you in faith, believing that you are moving in my life. Let this day bring testimonies and unexpected joy in Jesus' name. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My Faith is awake, alive, activated, working, strong, growing exceedingly and producing victorious results in Jesus' name. Amen.

MEDITATION

Joshua 1:8 (NIV)

Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

It is important to note that Christian meditation differs from Eastern or other form of meditation. Christian meditation is about filling the mind and mouth with the Word of God. 'Meditate' in Greek is meletao which means to revolve in the mind, or devise, or to plot.

Rest on God's unchangeable Word. Read His Word, meditate on His sayings, and then say those words to yourself until you are possessed with God's Word for your situation.

In Joshua 1:8 'meditate' is rendered from the Hebrew Hagah, which means to ponder, imagine, or mutter by talking quietly to yourself. Another meaning of hagah is to roar. Teens when you see fear you sit down in your chair and plot, and when you finish plotting, let the real Lion rise up in you and Roarrrr!

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Dear God, I take time today to plot and craft success. I sit and create solutions in finances, education, health and all that concerns me. Amen.

Our main scripture mentioned all manners or forms of persecution will happen to us as children of God. The best thing is we are not destroyed or finished.

PROSPERITY IS YOURS

Let the Lord be magnified which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

Teens your parents always want to showcase how brilliant you are and always share the story with anyone who is willing to listen. In today's scripture we are told that God our Father has so much pleasure to see His children prosper. God takes pleasure to see His children rich, successful and be in good health.

The Ra'ah Prophet Uebert Angel says that Christianity is not about the poor trying to be rich, but the rich discovering their inexhaustible riches and inheritance in Christ. God has given us everything pertaining to this life. Understand who you are and partake of the grace that is available to you.

We serve a prosperous and rich God. Change your mind-set today knowing you live a life of abundance. The Money is coming! Hallelujah!

PRESENT REVELATION

2 Peter 1:12 (KJV)

Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

Information is dynamic from time to time. What was relevant twenty years ago might not be that relevant in this modern day and age. The cars or brands which were mouth watering in the past might not be that attractive in this modern day.

Our scripture above ends by commanding us to get established in the present truth. Note for there to be present truth, there needs to be past and future truth. An old revelation we know that God is the one who performs miracles, but the present revelation we have been taught that in Him (Christ) we move, live and have our being which means we are the ones performing miracles today.

Go for the Word Teens and commune with the divine through prayers and supplication, you get fresh manna from heaven. God will begin to release present truth, relevant information for your destiny and you shall be more up to date than tomorrow's newspaper.

RADICAL FOR JESUS

Mark 2:4-5 (KJV)

Teens the reason why you are still alive today is because there is a specific assignment for you to accomplish. Do not let anyone or anything get you off track from your purpose in these last days, you need to make noise more than ever before. Time is running out and you do not want to be left behind because of fear. Your faith must be so radical that everyone who sees your life will catch the fire of the Holy Ghost.

There is no backing down in the face of the devil. Non-believers are very bold in what they do. You have witnessed the travesty that is taking place in this world. RENEWED MIND - KINGDOM THINKING

2 Timothy 3:16 (NIV)

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching and for showing people what is wrong in their lives. It is useful for correcting faults and teaching how to live right.

Our opening verse shows that the Word is able to regulate your mind to think right all the time, to think the Kingdom way. When you're born again, you're from God's Kingdom. You are to think as one from heaven.

If you want to be successful in Christ Jesus and live the life of the Kingdom, you must think like Christ wants you to think. Romans 12:2 says, "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

Walking in God's Word and having your mind renewed by the Word is the easiest thing for a Christian because the Word is your life. You were born of the Word, you have the life of the Word, so it's easy for you to think and live in the Kingdom way and have Kingdom results.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Heavenly Father help me to think in alignment with Your Word. Transform my thoughts so that my life reflects Your will in Jesus name. Amen.

JUST TAKE FORGIVENESS

1 John 1:7 (NIV)

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

In the new testament, asking God for forgiveness is like asking Him to save you. You receive forgiveness, you don't ask for it because the blood of Jesus was shed for the remission of your sins. Our opening scripture says if we walk in the light (the Word) as He is in the light, the blood of Jesus automatically cleanses us from all sin.

When you keep asking God for what He's already done for you, you don't apply your faith; You are to receive forgiveness as an act of faith. Refuse to be sin conscious because you've already been washed from your sins. In the eyes of the Lord, you stand holy, unblameable and unproveable (Colossians 1:21-22).

You're the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus; think and live righteousness. If you do something wrong, simply say "Lord I'm sorry for what I did; I receive forgiveness in Jesus name.

Ephesians 2:13 (NIV) says, "But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away has been brought near by the blood of Christ." HOW ARE YOU PROGRESSING?

Progress means advancement, moving forward. You must have goals; if you don't have definite goals, you may not be able to really measure your progress. First, locate your present position in that area of your life in which you desire to make progress. Is it in your health, finance, academic studies or family? Second, envision what the next level will be for you. Third, determine what you must do to get to your next level, that means your input in terms of effort, time and resources. Fourth and final, take action, do what you need to do to get the results you want.

Stay focussed on your goals. It is important to always pray in the Holy Ghost about your goals because it will guarantee your progress in achieving them. LIMIT YOUR ACCESS

1 Samuel 3:1 (NKJV)

Now the boy Samuel ministered to the Lord before Eli. And the Word of the Lord was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation.

American actor, Denzel Washington is known for not moving into Hollywood social circles. He was once asked about this in an interview, and he responded these wise words “If you meet me on Wednesday, you will not pay to see me on the big screen on Saturday.

He understood that there is a direct correlation between limiting your access and increasing your value. Common things are found anywhere, but anything that is rare automatically increases in value.

That means for riches to come to you, there are people you cannot be around and places you can’t be seen. You can’t hang around with hyenas and wonder what happened to your goals. Limit your access. It is too crowded at the bottom, and you must go to the top!

Our opening verse says that God set the boundaries that no one can go beyond. So, the wise thing to do is discover what God wants you to do, and then go all out and fulfil it. God will always send you the Word that's meant for you. He gives us the Word for this year, to guide your thinking, planning and actions. That Word is for you to live by, take it and run with it. You can be as successful as God has ordained for you to be this year if you'd walk with Him by the Word, through the Spirit.

Real success is achieving God's set goals for you at different levels of your life. Measure your success, what you do with the Word of God, and how you live to fulfil God's purpose for your life. Do you know when we exercise our authority in Christ, the angels don't need to fight on our behalf? It's simple, the demons bow in response to our authority because we're using the name of Jesus.

NO MORE COMPROMISE

Romans 12:2 (KJV)

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

The word 'conformed' in the above scripture means to 'follow another's pattern to fashion alike'. Christianity is now full of compromise. We have become too worldly in our approach to all things spiritual. We have followed the pattern of the world and brought into the sacred courts of our Churches.

Dance the same way as those in night clubs, you'll see half-dressed Christians entering the Church halls without reverence to the sacredness of the sanctuary. Some even go further as to fist fight in the house of God. This all shows the Church is active but the world is more active inside the Church.

All you need to enjoy life to the full is to be who God called you to be as you stay in the Word. SPIRITUAL PURSUIT

For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

The true secret of success in ministry and spiritual growth is hunger for the things of God. Have you arrived at the point in your life where you have become intentional and deliberate in your pursuit of spiritual matters? Most Christians want to exude power; they want to excel; they want to see the demonstration of power but are unwilling to crave the things of the Spirit.

STICK TO YOUR CALLING

John 1:23 (NKJV)

He said: "I am The voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Make straight the way of the Lord." as the Prophet Isaiah said."

Many Christians try to do everything and be everything. John was sent as a forerunner of Jesus to announce Him to the world, but he did not know exactly who Jesus was. John focused on his calling initially as he continued to baptize people who flocked to him in the wilderness. But the moment he left his calling and took the role of marriage counsellor with Herod's love affairs, he was apprehended, thrown into prison and eventually lost his head.

We are Christians, yet each one is called to perform certain tasks for the equipping of the saints. You cannot be everything at once, so carefully identify your calling and walk within that setting for maximum output so that you become a blessing to the Body of Christ.

All calls are to glorify God and showcase the salvation in Christ Jesus. God can still use you as business person, politician, lecturers etc. You have been called to a particular purpose. Be sure of your calling and stick to it.

GOD REMEMBERS YOU

Has there been a time when you felt unseen, unrecognized, and forgotten? Even in this year of Strange Oil, hearing about all the wonderful things happening in the lives of others, you watch as others laugh and rejoice and find yourself wondering when it will be your turn to celebrate.

We serve a God who understands what it's like to be forgotten. He said, "My people have forgotten me." (Jeremiah 18:15). He wants us to know that He will never forget us, to the extent that He has tattooed our names on His hands. Whenever He opens His hand of favour and blessing, your name is there. When He opens His hand to guide, comfort, and protect, your name is there.

You are forever remembered by the One who matters most, and the year is not over. His plan is still at work in your life. You are not forgotten; you are engraved on the palms of His hands!

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Heavenly Father remind me that You see me and remember me. In every situation let me feel Your presence. Thank You for not forgetting me. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God knows my name, and His promises to me remain steadfast and unchanging. By faith I declare, it is my time to celebrate. Amen.

I COME TO COLLECT

Ecclesiastes 3:1 (KJV)

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

Do you realize that Adam was not made a foetus or a newborn? He was brought into existence as a fully grown man with years already in him. He did not need to go through periods of adolescence or puberty. God, in his sovereignty condensed time so that Adam would not need to go through stages to get all that God had provided for him. The same is happening for you.

This year of strange oil is loaded with abundance that God has provided for His people. Like Adam, God is ready for you to experience His provision now! God can make your business receive millions tomorrow, He doesn't have to wait. Tell yourself "As a rich person, my time to collect is here!"

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Dear Heavenly Father, I receive all the Prosperity You reserved for me. Thank You for blessing me with provision, teach me to steward well and finance the Kingdom of God for your Glory. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a creation of divine acceleration, formed in fullness and completeness. I recognize the abundance that God has already provided for me. I declare that God's provision is ready for me, and my time to collect is now! Hallelujah.

WHO TOLD YOU?

Genesis 3:11 (KJV)

And he said, who told thee that thou was naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

The bedrock of character, behaviour or belief is information. It has the power to program you for failure or success. When the enemy visited Adam and Eve, he used information to lure them into eating the fruit, thereby exposing their nakedness. When God came down, He did not ask how they got naked but who told them that they were naked.

Create a buffer and place a premium on the information that gets into you. Some sermons and books are just there to expose your nakedness. God redeemed you and there is no more blemish on you. Who told you that you are sinful or a failure? That's information from the devil. You are a chosen generation and a new creature in Jesus Christ! All things about you are new.

Go out today with this brand new understanding that you are the epitome of God's love. A chosen and royal priesthood. You have power in you no matter the circumstances or shortcomings.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Dear God, help me see myself the way you see me. Loved, chosen, and made new in You. When I doubt who I am, remind me that my identity is found in You alone.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My mind is transformed through the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am elevated through the Word of God, and now I know who I am in the Name of Jesus.

SPEAK AS A PROPHET

1 Peter 4:11 (NKJV)

If anyone speaks, let them speak as the oracles of God.

You were created to function on the frequency of God so that when you speak, it is like God Himself is speaking. God energised your words and your tongue to speak realities so that whenever you speak, you are speaking as a prophet (the oracle of God.) The Bible tells us that we do not need to look anywhere else for God to speak. The Word of God is in your mouth. Therefore, you do not need to wait for another one to speak.

You are the Prophet in your school, house, family and wherever you are. As long as the Word of God is in your mouth, you can never be disadvantaged! The Word of God is in your heart. You need only to release it with the understanding that God's Word cannot fall to the ground. So, in this year of Strange Oil let your voice be heard. And as you declare His Word out of your own mouth, what you say will surely be established.

PRAYER FOR TODAY

Dear God let your Word dwell richly in me. Rewire my mind by Your truth and make me fruitful in every good work. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

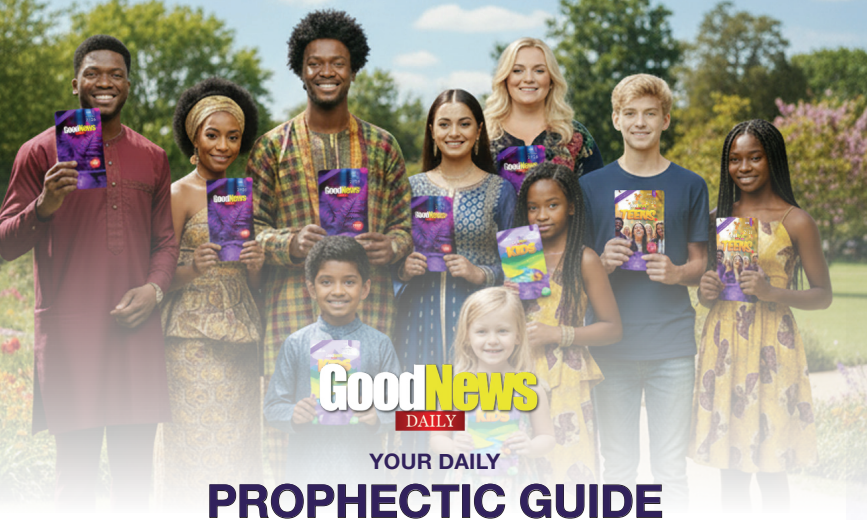

I speak life to every dead situation! Those who look down on me will look up to me. I shift my body into good health and I declare overflow to my finances. Everything in my life is flourishing and prospering because the word of God is working mightily and prevailing in me. Hallelujah.

SCRIPTURE PASSAGE FOR PROTECTION

ISAIAH 54.

14. I am build solid, grounded in righteousness. Far from any trouble, nothing to fear! Far from terror, it won't even come close!

15. If anyone attacks me, I will not think for a moment that God sent them. And if any should attack me, nothing will come of it.

16. God created the blacksmith who fires up his forge and makes a weapon designed to kill. He also created the destroyer.

17. But no weapon that can hurt me has ever been forged. Anyone who accuses me will be dismissed as a liar. I am God's servant so this is what I can expect God will see to it that everything works out for the best for me.

This is what God says and it will not fail in Jesus's name!

OUR LORD
JESUS CHRIST

Our Lord Jesus Christ is the cornerstone of the Christian faith, His life and teachings have profoundly influenced the course of history. Our Lord Jesus Christ is known for His unparalleled compassion, wisdom, and the miraculous deeds He performed. His message centered on love, forgiveness, and the promise of eternal life, offering hope and redemption to all who believe in Him. Throughout His ministry, He travelled across the lands of Judea, healing the sick, comforting the afflicted, and teaching about God's eternal kingdom.

Receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior means accepting His teachings and inviting His transformative presence into your life. It is a journey toward spiritual fulfillment, grounded in faith, love, and the promise of salvation.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, we find strength, hope, and a path to eternal peace. To be made whole, or to be saved, is to submit to God and His plan and purpose for our lives. It is a turning from our old ways and turning to Jesus Christ, to ask Him for forgiveness from our sins and to give us new life in Him.

ROMANS 10:9 (KJV)

"If you declare with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

Salvation is God's free gift to us and we become His children. It is an irrevocable acceptance into the family of God and it is an empowerment to live life wholly and fully with the purpose of reflecting God to the rest of His creation.
