WELCOME TO THE YEAR OF THE STRANGE OIL

Acts 19:11 (KJV)

And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul.

The word “wrought” in this verse is translated from the Greek ποιέō, meaning to construct or fashion something in a creative way. This reveals that the miracles taking place in Ephesus were of a creative nature, strange, extraordinary miracles that had never been seen before. Apostle Paul found himself moving in a realm of miracles that were extraordinary, far beyond his wildest expectations, surpassing every miracle he had previously experienced during his ministry. These were supernatural phenomena of the highest level.

Notice the phrase “through the hands of Paul.” It shows us that God accomplishes His purposes through His children. Through your very hands, strange testimonies shall come to pass. You shall do exploits yet unseen in your family, business, in anything concerning you, and it begins now!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

This is my year of exploits and supernatural miracles. I prophesy to every day of this new year to bring about God’s best for me. This is not the year I fail; it’s the year I prevail in Jesus’ Name!

WHERE ARE THE SIGNS?

Mark 16:17-18 (KJV)

And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Jesus highlights the signs that identify those who believe in Him. This means if you truly believe in Jesus, you can never be afraid. If you're afraid of sickness, your boss, starting a business, or relationships, then which God did you believe in?

Today's Scripture declares that strange and powerful signs follow those who believe in God. If signs don't follow you, check your level of belief. I've laid hands on thousands of people with some of the most contagious diseases known to man, but I never fear getting infected. I know who I am, and fear is not in my DNA.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

This Year of Strange Oil, I shall not be affected by any deadly or negative thing. The devil came too late for my downfall, I've already won in Jesus' Name! Hallelujah!

I BELIEVE IN MIRACLES

Hebrews 2:4 (NLT)

And God confirmed the message by giving signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit whenever he chose.

It's unfortunate that some Bible-quoting individuals claim miracles no longer exist, but such opinions are both twisted and uninformed. Some of us live, breathe, see, and experience the miraculous daily. To believe in God is to believe in the supernatural. If you don't believe in miracles, you don't believe in God!

A miracle is God's supernatural intervention in the affairs of men. God, being Spirit, lives in the realm of the spirit. When He answers prayer from that invisible realm into the visible, that's a miracle.

In this Year of Strange Oil, God desires to elevate the miraculous in your life. We're in a season of unprecedented, unique exploits. Start acting on the Word and building your faith until the supernatural becomes natural in your life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I speak an avalanche of miracles in my life right now by the power vested in me by the Holy Ghost! Anything that's amiss, manifest now at the sound of my voice in Jesus' Name!

PICK A GATE

Matthew 7:13 (KJV)

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.

Imagine being sent on a mission with two options: the easy road that ends in death, or the hard road that leads to life. Every churchgoer would choose the second option. Who wants to lose their life, right? Yet, it's not so.

Some Christians find themselves on the “easy” road of worldliness, one paved with bright lights, catchy music, fun relationships, and everything life’s “perfect highway” seems to offer. But is it really perfect?

Brethren, the devil can't make Hell beautiful, so he beautifies the road that leads there. Beware of the false and temporary allure of what the world has to offer. Make this the year you never divert from the strait gate that leads to eternal life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I prophesy that my life shall never be lost on the broad way. In this Year of Strange Oil, my eyes are open even more to the enemy's trickery. The devil came too late; I can never be distracted!

JUMP IN!

Mark 9:38-39 (NLT)

John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he wasn’t in our group.” “Don’t stop him!” Jesus said. “No one who performs a miracle in my name will soon be able to speak evil of me.”

I used to observe my toddlers competing to be the first to “snitch” on each other’s mischief. On any given day, at least one of them would bring a report. I imagine how it was for the disciples when they “snitched” to Jesus about the “one” who was copying them. But instead of rebuking the man, Jesus commended him.

That man didn’t wait for anything, he simply started casting out devils in Jesus’ Name! We don’t even know who this “one” was, but what a bold soldier! He watched closely, and when he saw the opportunity, he began to do exactly what Jesus was doing!

This year, don’t wait for anything. JUMP IN! The whispers of revival are strong in this Year of Strange Oil.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

This year, I excitedly jump into what God is doing. I am that ‘one’, that soldier that shall do exploits in the Name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

SUB-CONTRACTED PRAYER

Zechariah 4:6 (KJV)

Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

It's a sad reality that some Christians think life is a joke. They're carefree when it comes to matters of the spirit. They pray three minutes a day, and they're done, if they remember to pray at all. On the rare days they decide to pray, distractions steal their focus. Yet, the one thing they never forget is to ask others to pray for them.

You see, your nightmares will end when you discover the effectiveness of personal prayer. Today's verse is often quoted with hope, as people declare that God will come through. But how can He do it if you haven't communed with Him in prayer? How can His Spirit show Himself strong when all your prayers are entrusted to others?

Stop subcontracting your spiritual life. Take charge and start taking time to pray yourself.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I take full charge of my prayer life today. As I pray now, I walk in full dominion, victory and ever-increasing glory, in Jesus' Name.

CHOOSE OBEDIENCE

Philippians 2:8 (KJV)

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

In the Garden of Gethsemane, in the final moments before Jesus was arrested to be crucified, He prayed earnestly, saying, “Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine be done” (Luke 22:42). Do you see that? The Lord Jesus did not want to do it; it was a hard thing He had to do, but He did it anyway! Obedience is not about what you like; it’s about what God likes for you.

Our theme verse teaches that Jesus’ exaltation came because He was obedient unto death. Even at the hardest point, He remained obedient. Brothers and sisters, the miracle you want is on the other side of obedience. Choose to obey God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I prophesy a life of obedience to what God has set before me. I humble myself as I let the Spirit of God lead me in all things in Jesus’ Name! Amen.

THE MASTERPLAN

Jeremiah 29:11 (KJV)

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

The first forty-five chapters of Jeremiah focus on the judgment coming to Judah for its unbelief and disobedience. In fact, Jeremiah is known as the Weeping Prophet because he constantly confronted the wickedness of his time. Yet, right in the middle of it all, God declares something beautiful: "I know the plans I have for you, plans for good, not disaster!"

This verse interrupts the chaos with divine hope. Even in a world filled with darkness, God still shines His light. This is the grace and love God has for you. In this Year of Strange Oil, move with confidence knowing God isn't keeping a record of your wrongs. Instead, He maintains that His master plan for you is simply the best!

Act on this Word, no matter what the day holds.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

No disaster shall take place in my life today. God's plans for me are perfect, and I stand on that perfection in Jesus' Name! Amen.

BUILD SOMEONE

1 Thessalonians 5:11 (KJV)

Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

Some people take church seriously only because they're looking for someone to help them. They see it as a networking hub that'll link them up with what they need to get ahead in life. Some are there solely to be helped, period. Just imagine if every Christian took today's verse literally, actively developing a desire to help others rather than wanting to be helped. The Body of Christ would be so much stronger!

If you've ever felt ignored, rejected, or uncared for, consider that others may be feeling the same. So, take the responsibility to look out for those in similar situations. Encourage and strengthen them. Don't live for yourself alone. In this Year of Strange Oil, be responsible for others. Build someone up with an encouraging text message, call, or visit today. This is practical Christianity.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I arise as a pillar of support to build someone up today. By God's grace at work in me, anyone I encounter today shall be encouraged, strengthened and energized in Jesus' Name! Amen.

CAN YOU BE TRUSTED?

Luke 16:10 (KJV)

He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

I remember the early days of this ministry. As a young prophet fully aware of his mission to a dispensation, I was eager to take the message of the hour to the ends of the Earth. There was urgency to the work, and I had to move quickly. Even with that, God still took me through every module, course, and practical lesson in His university. I didn't skip class. I was the same prophet with seven church members for a year as I am filling stadia today.

Today's verse teaches faithfulness in little. Imagine if I'd abandoned my calling out of frustration over having only a few members, would I be here now? Whatever stage you're at in life, be faithful. Prove you can be trusted with the smallest things, and watch God elevate you in this Year of Strange Oil!

MURDERERS IN THE PEW!

1 John 3:15 (KJV)

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

I cannot tell you how many times I have come across people who hate each other yet sit in the same church, listen to the same Word, sing the same songs, and go home unchanged. Some are even family members, fighting all week but still heading to the house of the Lord in their Sunday best.

If we take today's verse literally, a sobering question comes to mind: how many murderers are in the church today? People harbouring grudges, some ten years old or more, while claiming to have the very life of Christ within them.

Jesus gave one commandment: love one another. It's no surprise He takes such a strong stance on hate; it's the direct opposite of His command.

It's a new year. Learn to love, start now!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I prophesy a brand-new life soaked in love. I shall never harbour hate another day in this Year of Strange Oil in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Notice how immediately after the Lord Jesus was confirmed as God's beloved Son, He faced temptation. This is very telling of how the life of a Christian is. Have you ever noticed how sometimes, right after something good happens, you face immediate negative backlash? That's exactly how the enemy works. The idea is for you to lose faith in God.

When God confirms you as a businessman, pastor, spouse, marriage material, politician, expect resistance, even from friends and family. Jesus was tempted like you; He faced wild beasts of life just like you, BUT HE OVERCAME!

Don't lose faith. You've already overcome!

TRUST THE DRAFTSMAN

Proverbs 3:5 (KJV)

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

One of my favourite scriptures pertaining to faith and trust in God comes from Abraham, the patriarch of old. Here's what the scripture says, "By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went." (Hebrews 11:8).

Just imagine for a moment, God telling you to leave everything you've known and start walking in any direction, no given plan, no map, no lump sum of cash to walk with, nothing! Talk about trusting God to the extent where it's no longer about your qualifications, your connections or your own intelligence. This is where today's verse comes in. Never say "I have it all figured out". God has the complete blueprint for your life, trust Him with it, He drafted it!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

From today, I commit my plans, aspirations, and desires fully to God. I shall follow His leading in everything that pertains to me and by this, failure dies by fire in Jesus' Name!

Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

When you examine the Bible, patterns emerge throughout the Old and New Testaments. Great men and women of faith followed a certain order and got results. Just as (Hebrews 11:32-33) notes, they “stopped the mouths of lions” by relentless faith.

Today’s scripture reveals that God works with patterns. He has a prescribed order for doing things. If faith produced results in Bible times, it still does today. Faith is an order, a pattern that guarantees results. When you follow the pattern of faith proven by men of old in the Word of God, things become remarkably easier for you.

Follow the proven pattern of faith; begin to frame the perfect day right now. See it, believe it, and act on it. That’s the pattern.

SPELLS AND CURSES

Ecclesiastes 10:8 (KJV)

He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

Over the years, I've been asked if curses and spells can affect a Christian. My answer remains the same: when you're born again, you inherit blessings, not curses. No born-again Christian should suffer curses; that's a malfunction. If you stay in the Word and live by God's principles, you're automatically protected from the enemy's schemes.

So why do some Christians wallow in curses? Today's verse holds the key: living outside the Word opens doors to the snakes. They've broken the hedge, giving snakes legal access to their lives. (Proverbs 26:2) says, "...the curse causeless shall not come." Meaning, if it comes, there was a cause.

Stay in the Word this year. Strange oil will only flow freely if the hedge remains intact.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

THRESHING FLOOR

Matthew 3:12 (KJV)

His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.

When you walk down a bakery aisle, it's hard to ignore the aroma of freshly baked bread and the variety on display. But before that glamour comes a vital process: threshing, the separation of wheat from chaff to produce usable flour.

Today's verse points us to the spiritual threshing floor. In the realm of the spirit, this is where purification happens. It's where surgeries take place, removing wrong friendships, cutting off addictions, and stripping toxic mindsets. On the threshing floor, it's just you and God, it's a change of season, and a recommitment to all things Kingdom.

This is your season of transformation. As you step onto God's threshing floor, a strange oil for exploits is flowing on you now!

SHOUT IT OUT

Mark 10:48 (KJV)

And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

I often say, “Quiet Christians die quietly.” The blind man’s story beautifully illustrates this. Church members told him to be quiet, but he cried out even louder.

Today, we have weak Christians who will quit attending church just because someone looked at them the wrong way. Many people want their miracle, but few are willing to actively pursue it because they’re afraid of what others will think. They can’t even shout “Amen” because they believe it’ll draw too much attention to themselves.

This blind man, however, didn’t care about what other church members thought, his focus was on Jesus alone. He saw his miracle in Jesus, and by his bold shout, he was delivered!

Shout your way into a special unction today, somebody!

BE GRATEFUL

Luke 17:17-18 (KJV)

And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

Whenever we hold meetings, be it a crusade or a Sunday service, we always look for the first testimony. That first testimony opens the door for others to follow. You'd be surprised how many want help from God, but few return to testify. There have been cases where, after receiving a serious creative miracle, individuals disappear without returning to give God the glory, never to be seen again. This is sad. See in the verse how it troubled Jesus?

Brethren, being ungrateful is a sign that you've exalted yourself above God. It's serious pride. Gratitude is a sign of humility, and it keeps pride in check. Today, make it your mission to testify of all God has been to you. Also, thank people who've helped you become who you are.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Some Christians repackage worry to not seem like worry, saying things like, “I’m not worried, I’m just nervous.” Well, no matter how it’s labelled, it’s still worry. In (Luke 10:41), Jesus said, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and upset about many things...” Are you like Martha? You started the year full of enthusiasm, until worry set in, about tuition, rent, bills, relationships, and so on. What does worry ever help?

Worry stems from focusing on the wrong source. If God, the Father, takes pride in feeding birds and clothing flowers, how much more valuable are you to Him?

From today, decide to never worry another day in your life. Look to God, your unending source of supply. This is a brand-new year with a special unction; it will only work for you if you quit worrying. Let go and let God!

GET HIM OUT OF YOUR HEAD

Isaiah 43:18 (NIV)

Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

One of the devil's favourite strategies is to plant thoughts in your mind. He'll tell you how bad you are, how you'll never amount to anything, and repeat this over and over until you believe every one of his lies.

When he told Eve she would be like God if she ate of the fruit, that was not Eve's thought, it came from Satan himself! Remember how he once said, "I will make myself like the Most High"? He was planting that same idea into Eve!

Be mindful of the devil and his methods. He'll plant thoughts of lust, suicide, and greed in you, and if you're not mindful, you'll eventually act on them. Once you've acted on them, he'll do whatever it takes to keep you there. Don't let him live rent-free in your mind, get him out of your head!

A LESSON FROM A DRUNKARD

Acts 2:4 (KJV)

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Have you ever seen a drunkard go about his day? He may see a rubbish pile and happily sink into it thinking it's a bed, or push a man in a wheelchair expecting him to run. While we don't condone drunkenness, there's a lesson to learn here.

(Ephesians 5:18) says, "...be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit." There's a reason Scripture draws this comparison. A drunkard doesn't see like others do. He's not in control of his actions; the alcohol is. Likewise, when you're filled with the Spirit, you're under His influence. You surrender control of your life to Him, and He begins to lead. You start to see differently, speak with power, and declare supernatural miracles that surely manifest. Decide to make every day this year a Spirit-filled day.

HONOUR YOUR PARENTS

Ephesians 6:1-2 (AKJV)

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise.

The Word of God is clear when it gives instruction about the relationship between children and their parents. I want you to take note how verses 1 and 2 speak of two different sets of parents. These verses are not repetitive; rather, there is a lesson to be learnt there. The first verse talks about obeying your spiritual parents that God has placed over you, and verse two talks about your biological parents.

When you dishonour your parents, both spiritual and biological, it affects your life negatively. Success may come, but it can be fleeting, with cycles of ups and downs, losses, and instability. Honouring your parents is a divine instruction that guarantees a pleasant life! Honour them today!

Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

I've heard people ignorantly say statements like, "Miracles don't exist anymore; they were meant for Bible times only." How far from the truth this is. (Hebrews 13:8) tells us God is the same yesterday, today and forever! If He did it in the Bible, He's doing it today!

Look at today's verse. It'll never make sense to one who doesn't know God. To think a shadow can heal a person? Yet, we have seen this countless times in our ministry where people with all kinds of sickness pass by my shadow, and testimonies come flying in their numbers. What is that? Luke 1:37 (KJV)

For with God nothing shall be impossible.

We sing this verse, we quote it, print it on t-shirts, make placards and cross-stitch decorations with it for our homes, yet do we really believe it?

One thing that has really messed up the minds of Christians is growing up in a world where people are taught that limitations are normal. From the early days of school, children are placed into categories that separate the so called “brighter” ones from the rest; and from there, many grow up believing they are limited and not the brightest. They eventually gain employment and are immediately categorised and given limitations as to what they can and cannot do.

Christians bring this mindset to church, too. They come with a mind that is already accustomed to limitations, and they transfer those limits to God. They find it hard to accept a God who can perform strange miracles. God has no limits. Renew your mind today and know He can do anything.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

There is nothing too difficult for God. Every one of my requests shall be accomplished during service today in Jesus' Name! Amen.

CUT DOWN TO SIZE

Revelation 19:15 (WEB)

Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty.

Victory is spoken before it's seen. Your mouth is the opening from which the sword proceeds. The Greek word for "mouth" is stoma, which means the edge of a sword. Your mouth is a weapon; it can cut down a multitude. God has empowered your words to be more exact than a skilful surgeon's scalpel.

As you pray and declare, open the eyes of your spirit using your sanctified imagination. See that problem being sliced into pieces. Perform an operation on that growth troubling your body, speak to it and cut it off in Jesus' Name. It doesn't matter what multitude stands against you, debt, disease, delay, demonic pressure; use precise, faith-filled words to cut every foe down to size! Speak consistently this Year of Strange Oil, and keep cutting until resistance collapses.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I refuse to run; my mouth is the weapon that chases opposition. My words, charged by the Holy Ghost, dismantle every satanic structure around me. I speak, and obstacles are cut down to size, in Jesus' Name! Amen.

DISCERNMENT AND DIET

Isaiah 7:15 (NKJV)

Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

Did you know your diet determines discernment? Isaiah prophesied Jesus' diet, "butter and honey", was training for discernment: "that He may know (yada': experiential knowing) to refuse evil and choose good." The world says, "You are what you eat." Biblically, you know as you eat. What you consistently consume, scripture, counsel, media, habits, sharpens or dulls your spiritual reflexes. Even in the physical, diet shapes capacity. In the spirit, feeding on God's Word tunes your instincts so that rejecting evil and choosing good becomes automatic.

Curate your intake. Fill your day with "butter and honey" for the spirit: the Word, worship, wise voices. Starve inputs that fog your judgment. Before decisions, "taste" the text by reading, meditating, and confessing the Word. Let your menu form your morals and allow your appetite to train your discernment.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I feed on the Word, and my senses are trained. I know to refuse evil and choose good. My appetites align with Heaven; my judgment is sharp, and my steps are sure, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

GUARDING AGAINST GOSSIP

Proverbs 18:8 (MSG)

Listening to gossip is like eating cheap candy; do you really want junk like that in your belly?

Gossip drains power! God doesn't anoint anyone to stop gossip, He tells the Church to remove it. Gossipers corrode trust, scatter focus, and dismantle what God is building.

Words are weapons. In the wrong mouths they become shrapnell! Refuse to be a distribution channel for "cheap candy." If someone keeps feeding you "scoops," they're not your friend; they're recruiting your ears.

Here's how to guard your spirit in the Year of Strange Oil:

Retreat: Step back from repeat offenders. Proximity is permission.

Redirect: "Let's pray for them instead." If the story can't survive prayer, it shouldn't be told.

Refuse: "I'm not the person to discuss this with." Close the door kindly but firmly.

Replace: Fill your mouth with intercession, scripture, and solutions. Build what the enemy tries to break.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I separate from gossip and those who spread it. My ears are gates of truth, my mouth builds, heals, and blesses. I speak life, shut down strife, and protect the unity of God's house, in Jesus' Name!

FILL UP YOUR CLOUDS

Ecclesiastes 11:3 (KJV)

If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

As a Christian, you can change anything through prayer, break through any spiritual gates through prayer, seize demonic warehouses through prayer, and take charge over nations through prayer. By those words you speak, you carry out a spiritual exercise of filling up clouds with whatever your need may be.

It doesn't matter how bad the economy is; if your clouds are full of rain, they can't help but rain prosperity on you! This is the year you utter words that force a change in your health, in your job, in your marriage, in your city or anything that concerns you. Decree words into the atmosphere and watch your clouds swell with rain. Until it starts pouring, brother, sister, don't stop talking it, keep saying it, and you shall surely see an abundance!

POWER!

Luke 9:1 (KJV)

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

Every Christian has asked for power as a prayer request at one point or another in their lives. But have you ever asked yourself what power in Christ really is? I'll give you a definition: power is the dynamic, inherent ability to cause changes. It's the kind of power that reproduces itself, a power that is seen with tangible results.

Jesus told us that He has given us power and authority over all devils and the ability to cure diseases. I wish you would grasp this! If only you knew and understood that the divine ability is right there in your spirit to effect a change in your conditions, you wouldn't be as oppressed as you are.

This dynamic, life-changing power is in you right now. If you're born again, it's available to you. Just believe, and put it to work today!

YOU'RE AN ATMOSPHERE

Luke 10:5 (KJV)

And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

Every child of God carries an atmosphere. Today's verse proves it. God would never tell you to distribute peace if you had no ability to change atmospheres. When you step on the scene and speak peace, a season of peace begins to reign from that moment. Where there was turmoil or serious crises, just by your entering a place, calm is restored.

Peace is power over bad circumstances or happenings. By taking this superpower to heart, you cause calm in the midst of the wildest storms. When people see you, and they've been going through a tough time, the moment you, the atmosphere, show up, there is sudden joy in that place. An air of victory hangs in the air, and all hope is restored! You're an atmosphere in the Year of Strange Oil. Use your superpower to the fullest!

A GIVER BY NATURE

2 Corinthians 9:8 (NLT)

And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others.

I often say, if you didn't come out of a rich family, let a rich family come out of you, but the question is, how? All through scripture, what triggers an extravagant level of blessing from our extravagant God is giving! As simple as this may sound, your giving provokes God to pour out more blessings upon your life, for you cannot outgive God!

The error many Christians make is that they substitute giving with prayer, fasting, and fellowship. Remember, you're transacting with the king of kings, and it is royal protocol that even earthly kings do their best to outgive anyone who gave them a gift!

Trust God with your finances by giving in this Year of Strange Oil, and watch God bless you beyond your imagination!

Yet more and more believers were brought to the Lord—large numbers of both men and women.

Revival is personal. It involves igniting your inner fire for Jesus. You cannot be revived and remain the same. Your passion for the Lord will skyrocket the moment you're revived; your spirituality will be accentuated, your Word study life will ascend, your prayer life will be animated, and you will not leave fasting to church leaders only.

Revival demands an unquenchable hunger for the things of God. A revived vessel is for the Master's use and refuses to compromise for the sake of survival, like the three Hebrew boys who wouldn't bow to Nebuchadnezzar's image. They were thrown into the fiery furnace, yet God shielded them, and they emerged unharmed. When you stand up for God, He stands up for you. Let this be your mindset in this year of Strange Oil.

WILDERNESS EXPERIENCE

Matthew 4:1 (KJV)

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

The New Testament reveals the Father's will concerning our lives. Jesus is the perfect, shining example of walking in God's will, yet He was led into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

You can be in the centre of God's will and still face a wilderness experience. Jesus, God in the flesh, had to be tested so you and I would know that walking the earth comes with times of testing that push you through the wilderness. The wilderness is a place of dryness, extreme temperatures, and isolation, but never assume you're out of His will just because things are hard.

In this Year of Strange Oil, what destroys others won't destroy you as you remain aligned with God's will for your life, in Jesus' name.

DON'T FORGET ABOUT FASTING

Matthew 4:2 (ESV)

After fasting forty days and forty nights, He was hungry.

People of great prayer and great character are people of few words. Those who are talkative want to be seen or heard and are usually lacking in prayer. When a prophetic Word is declared over your life, but its manifestation seems delayed, one spiritual weapon to engage is fasting.

Fasting helps bring your prophetic Word to fruition. Understand that fasting doesn't change God, He remains the same before, during, and after you fast. However, fasting breaks the flesh and changes you. If you desire true inner change, take fasting seriously.

As you fast and pray in this Year of Strange Oil, every prophetic Word declared over your life shall come to pass in the Name of Jesus.

KEEP SPEAKING THE WORD

John 11:53 (NIV)

So from that day on they plotted to take his life.

To understand this verse, you must consider the pretext and the context. The religious leaders of the day opposed Jesus because they wanted to protect their positions. They persecuted the Miracle Worker to preserve their influence. Don't be surprised when religious people come against you. They did the same to the Master. So, if it's happening to you, know that it's nothing new.

Working miracles and making progress attracts opposition. In your workplace, the moment promotion is near, your health, family, or finances may come under attack. The enemy will never applaud your progress, he fights it.

So, stay armed with the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. Keep speaking it; keep saying it. Declare that you're blessed, and no negative word spoken against you will prevail in this Year of Strange Oil.

PRACTICE HONOUR

Exodus 20:12 (KJV)

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Many read this verse thinking only of the land God gives, but it's also about the days He gives. Long life is directly connected to honouring your father and mother. (Ephesians 6:2) confirms this by quoting today's verse.

Honouring your father and mother unlocks longevity, increase, prosperity, peace, and divine protection. However, many Christians make the mistake of thinking that, because they're now born again, honouring their biological parents is no longer necessary, that only spiritual parents matter. This is a grave error. To fully benefit from this promise, you must honour both your biological and spiritual parents.

Cherish and care for your parents while they are still with you. Never take them for granted, honour them and show your appreciation always.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will never deny myself the blessing of long life through dishonour! Prosperity and peace are mine as I honour my biological and spiritual parents, in Jesus' Name! Amen.

SOW INTO IT

Genesis 27:7 (KJV)

Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

Many people desire the anointing of their spiritual fathers or mentors. However, it may surprise you to know that they often expect to receive that level of anointing for free! Consequently, few make a lasting impact in ministry because most neglect the principle of sacrifice. True fatherhood and impartation require sacrifice.

If you want to grow and replicate the carrier of the grace you desire, go beyond admiration, connect with the carrier by sowing into that grace. If you want everything in life for free, without serving or sowing into it, you will never truly value it. That's why Isaac asked for venison before releasing a blessing on his son. It's a spiritual principle: honour through sacrifice opens the door to impartation. Uphold this in your life, and you'll reap the benefits.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a grace collector. I'm ready to receive impartation by delighting my father through sowing into the vision and agenda God placed upon his life, in Jesus' mighty name. Amen.

GOD'S ACTIVE PRESENCE

John 11:14-15 (KJV)

Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

How could Jesus be glad when Lazarus died? This text reveals what theologians call tension in the text, the Lord, the owner of life, is excited upon hearing of the death of his beloved follower. His point was this: His active presence wasn't there when Lazarus died, but that absence created an opportunity for greater faith.

Sometimes, your struggle isn't about doubting God's power, but whether He'll show His power in your case. I'm here to announce to you that even after you've gone above and beyond, enduring every attack, Jesus has already dispatched help, and it's on the way. Speaking about the rapture isn't about denominational affiliation or sowing fear; it's a call to readiness to meet your Maker. Your personal rapture could take place at any moment, so always be ready. Live every day clothed in God's righteousness.

Sometimes, a sudden discomfort or uneasiness comes to your mind. This is more than a thought, it's a signal from the spiritual realm, a warning that something is about to happen. Signals of war make you unsettled in your spirit.

When you discern such signals, it means your spirit is sensitive and alert to pending attacks, and you need to be ready. Don't ignore them; catch the signals and respond immediately in prayer, waging warfare with the Word. Be vigilant, because you may even have a Judas hidden in your camp.

RAPTURE MODE

Matthew 24:38 (KJV)

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark.

Consider carefully the pretext of the text so that as you dissect the scripture, you can grasp the context. Who was eating and drinking? Was it Noah? No, he was busy building the ark. The eating and drinking were the preoccupation of sinners.

In today's world, the same is happening, "pride" parades, festivals with drinking, singing, and all forms of excessive indulgence in sensual pleasures. However, the true Christian focuses on soul-winning and the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Everything that's happening now was at the centre of Noah's days, but Noah remained focused on his God-given assignment. When the flood came, while others suffered in agony, Noah had peace of mind.

In this Year of Strange Oil, don't be distracted. Fix your gaze on Jesus, for His return is closer than you think.

In a jam-packed stadium in the Copperbelt region of Zambia, during a GoodNews Conference in August 2025, I witnessed the miraculous power of God in action. I didn't preach with human eloquence but in the demonstration of power, as declared in (1 Corinthians 2:4). Tens of thousands in the stadium and millions around the world saw Jesus at work!

Paralysis was healed, HIV vanished, miracle money appeared in mobile phones and even as physical cash. Inanimate gadgets, such as cracked phone screens, were repaired supernaturally without a trace of previous damage. Blood conditions like HIV were healed again and again. It could only be Jesus!

Doctors use syrups, tablets, and injections to relieve the symptoms of sickness, but one Word from God brings instant miracles, signs, and wonders, with no negative side effects. It can only be JESUS!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

It can only be Jesus leading me to do exploits in this Year of Strange Oil. I cannot be stopped or discouraged, for He leads me from glory to glory! Hallelujah!

HUNGER FOR GOD

Genesis 5:24 (KJV)

And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

Many Christians seek power, renown, or recognition, yet their hunger for the things of God is shallow. I've met people who desire manifestations but lack hunger for true intimacy with the God of Heaven. They want His "things" but are bankrupt in His love.

A man or woman with unquenchable hunger for God commands power and shifts destinies. It's time for you to be that person, one who is burning with an undiluted and unquenchable desire for Him. In this Year of Strange Oil, let your hunger rise to the level where God can entrust you with transformative power to bring change in your family, business, career, and finances without struggle.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My hunger for God is undiluted! As my desire for Him grows, I am empowered and step boldly into the realities of the Spirit. My life rises in glory, in the Name of Jesus! Amen.

PRAYERFUL FOCUS

1 Kings 18:42 (KJV)

So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees.

Prophet Elijah prayed with his face between his knees. His head, which contains the eyes, ears, mouth, nose, and brain, was bowed in total submission. This posture showed that his every faculty was engaged in intense prayer, leaving no room for distraction.

It is at the point of full concentration that fire from the throne room penetrates every opposition to your advancement. Let your time in prayer be one of complete focus, full concentration wrapped in faith and expectation, and results will surely manifest. Such prayer enforces heavenly realities and births miracles. Deliberately practise this, and your life will soar in this Year of Strange Oil.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I pray with results! My prayers shake territories and force circumstances to succumb to God's Word within me. My prayers are result-oriented because I'm focused on advancing God's agenda. Amen.

A TIME FOR SEPARATION

1 Kings 19:9 (NLT)

There he came to a cave, where he spent the night. But the LORD said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

There are times and seasons to be among the crowd, shouting, singing, and celebrating. There are also crucial times when the vicissitudes of life demand separation. It's in such moments of solitude that God begins to speak to you.

Elijah, a renowned prophet, travelled afar and lodged in a cave, totally separated from the multitude. Only then did the Word of the Lord come to him.

You've stayed in a noisy environment for too long, mingling with the crowd only to experience recycled pain, frustration, and disappointment. But when you dare to boldly separate yourself from the crowd in this Year of Strange Oil, God will meet you for a divine encounter that transforms your destiny forever.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will not give sleep to my eyes until God speaks in my moment of separation. I know God speaks, and I am positioned to hear Him clearly, in the mighty Name of Jesus! Amen.

POSITION OF THE HEART

Jeremiah 17:9 (NIV)

The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it?

We live in a world where many strive to impress. Some smile, laugh, and appear joyful, but what is the true condition of the heart?

In one of our services, a couple entered smiling, holding hands, admired by all. To the natural eye, their love seemed to be made in Heaven. Yet as the prophetic flowed, it was revealed they were on the verge of divorce. Shockingly, the wife had already filed, but the man was completely unaware. Her confirmation of the prophetic Word left the husband stunned.

God doesn't judge by outward appearance but by the positioning of the heart. Let Him see that your heart is consecrated to Him in this Year of Strange Oil.

ROCKET BOOSTERS

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

Rocket boosters provide the thrust needed for liftoff, but once the rocket reaches a certain height, they detach, leaving it to continue its orbit.

Likewise, some people are only meant to accompany you for part of your journey. Yet many Christians lose sleep wondering why someone chose to leave, despite all they did for them. The truth is, certain people and things cannot accompany you to your next level.

It's about time you adopt the mindset of a rocket scientist: see their departure as necessary for your elevation. In this Year of Strange Oil, blast off, let go of what cannot stay, and soar!

IT IS FINISHED!

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, it is finished: and he bowed his head and gave up the ghost.

When Jesus boldly declared, "IT IS FINISHED!" to those around Him and creation as a whole, it was a statement that echoed into eternity. Your past, present, and future sins were all dealt with on that cross. Jesus is not in the business of revisiting your errors, so don't crucify yourself!

His shed blood was the full payment for mankind's sin. Knowing that He paid the ultimate price should fill your heart with joy and peace, not guilt or condemnation. When Jesus says it is finished, it means the matter is settled, you need not worry about it anymore. You are forgiven, and the record of wrongs is completely erased.

Celebrate your freedom today with thanksgiving, for in Christ you are free indeed!

No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

Revival is awakening from spiritual coldness and dormancy and stepping into new realities in Christ. Scripture says no one lights a candle and hides it. When Jesus calls you the light of the world, it means you disperse darkness, you don't attract it.

The light you carry is phótizó, stadium light so bright it blinds the enemy. It is also fire emanating from the Holy Spirit within you. You are called to brighten your environment. So, don't let darkness overtake your marriage, family, business, or career. Rise, shine! For your light has come in this Year of Strange Oil!

IMPORTANT BENEFIT OF HONOUR

Ephesians 6:2 (KJV)

Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise.

There are blessings attached to honouring fathers and mothers, whether biological or spiritual. It's paramount that you get this right. By honouring your parents, you obtain longevity, a reversal of death sentences, protection from accidents, and a "not guilty" verdict from the enemy's accusations that he'd try to use to eliminate you.

Honour is not merely an abstract spiritual concept; it is expressed physically. Don't wait to be reminded to appreciate and honour your biological parents and those who parent you in the Lord. Honour is a spiritual principle that attracts God's blessing. It is also a command that comes with a promise: that your days may be long upon the earth.

In this Year of Strange Oil, as you honour both biological and spiritual parents, long life and divine preservation are yours.

UNREALISED GAINS

Matthew 7:24 (KJV)

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock.

In the world of investing, many entrepreneurs understand the concept of “unrealised gains”, profits that exist on paper but are not actualised because the asset hasn’t been sold. Imagine buying shares for $1000, which later rise to $1500. That $500 increase is your unrealised gain that becomes real only when you sell the share.

For Christians, failing to activate scripture means risking a life of unrealised gains, never fully accessing the rewards God has stored up. The Word becomes mere paper gains, full of divine promises that remain dormant. Line upon line, precept upon precept, scripture outlines God’s plan for your flourishing, and even the prophetic theme of strange oil - without action, it serves no purpose. Put the Word to work, don’t just hear it, do it!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I choose not only to listen to the Word but to put action to it! I activate every divine provision written concerning me. I will not live with unrealised gains; I claim all that God has declared over my life!

THE EYES OF GOD

Judges 6:15 (NIV)

“Pardon me, my lord,” Gideon replied, “but how can I save Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family.”

In today’s scripture, God calls Gideon during a time when Israel was oppressed by the Midianites. The Lord said, “Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites...” What makes this reading so impactful is Gideon’s response. Instead of walking confidently in who God had called him to be, he responded in fear, judging his ability through the eyes of men.

Many Christians today do the same, limiting God’s move in their lives by underestimating who they are in Christ. They feel unqualified, weak, or too small. But it doesn’t matter whether others consider you the least in your place of education, workplace, or community; if God has called you, He’ll empower you. You will fulfil His mission in a mighty way in this year of Strange Oil!

In ornithology (the study of birds), eagles are considered among the most focused, strategic, and precise creatures in the animal kingdom. With eyesight eight times sharper than humans, they can spot prey from miles away, even at heights of 23,000 feet. Beyond their physical ability, eagles possess a mindset unlike that of other flying creatures; they are relentless in their pursuit of their prey. Unfazed and unshaken.

I WON'T RUN ON AN EMPTY TANK

Romans 12:11 (NIV)

Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord.

Many Christians live their natural lives without obtaining all the benefits Christ gave us through His death and glorious resurrection, simply because they've settled into a false sense of spiritual progress. They stop pursuing deeper study of the Word, higher levels of prayer, and focused dedication to the Kingdom; they've become complacent.

Imagine driving a car on a quarter tank of gas. Sure, it's not as desperate as being on empty, but it's still far from a full tank! As a child of God, never mistake "being better than before" for being where God intends you to be. Don't settle for living below the standard God has set for you. True progress isn't about being better than your worst but advancing toward Christ's best for your life!

Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

There’s a deception the enemy promotes that has infiltrated the hearts of millions: it’s the phrase “nobody’s perfect.” While it may sound humble and practical, it contradicts the truth revealed in scripture. If you allow it to take precedence in your life, the effects can be detrimental.

Yes, man is flawed, but when you accept Christ, you receive His nature and are called to live by His heavenly standard, not the patterns of the carnal man. God gave us the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Spirit for the perfecting of the saints, that means you!

Jesus, our flawless example, shows that perfection is living in alignment with God’s will, calibrating your life to His righteousness. Real Christianity is the manifestation of truth, decide to live in that truth this year of strange oil!

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

What sets Christianity apart from other organised religions is that it isn't a religion in the traditional sense; it's a relationship with divinity! God loved us so deeply that He chose to dwell among us, take our punishment through the cross, and redeem us by His glorious resurrection. He's a personable God who loves you beyond human understanding and wants you to live a beautified life in Christ.

Scripture reveals that as you draw closer to God, He draws closer to you. By delving into His Word, you are investing valuable time into strengthening this divine relationship and, in turn, opening windows of countless blessings and opportunities.

Like any relationship, communication is key. Talk to Him about your interests, challenges, everything, because He truly cares for you.

AMBITION COMPLEMENT'S PURPOSE

Colossians 3:23 (NIV)

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters.

There's a common misconception that God's purpose for your life conflicts with your ambitions and that to carry out His will, you must abandon your passions. However, this couldn't be farther from the truth! Scripture teaches that God causes us to will and to act according to His good purpose. When aligned with His will, your ambitions aren't selfish; they're purposeful.

For instance, if your ambition is to excel in the luxury hospice sector and your God-given purpose is to evangelise, your business profits can finance missions, support ministry, and create opportunities to share the Gospel. God wants you to succeed. As long as your ambitions don't obstruct the call of God on your life but complement it, they become powerful tools for His glory.

THE BEARER OF BAD NEWS

1 Peter 5:7 (ESV)

Casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you.

The authenticity of God's Word is seen in its enduring historical accuracy and real-life relevance. Yet many Christians still feel overwhelmed by life, despite Scripture assuring us of God-given peace. This peace is distributed to every child of God upon receiving His life and Spirit. This doesn't expose a flaw in God's Word, but rather an issue in the modern-day Church.

Millions of Christians live in a state of fatigue and restlessness, not because they're weak, but because they're carrying burdens they were never meant to bear. Instead of casting their cares on Jesus in a prophesied year of strange oil, they hold on to them. You're not called to be the bearer of bad news. All you have to do is walk in the perfect peace and victory Christ has already secured for you.

The sincerity of prayer isn't measured by eloquent speech or poetic rhythm. What matters most to God is the posture of your heart. Faith is rooted in the heart. Scripture tells us, "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." Faith is the outward demonstration of our belief in God's Word. When you express your faith through words, it becomes a manifestation of the belief in your heart.

Many Christians assume their prayers go unanswered because they've missed this truth. However, understand that your confession in prayer is more than just repeating what God has said concerning you; it's speaking in agreement with your faith in alignment with God's Word. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.

It may shock you to know that the sensations people experience through alcohol, recreational drugs, or other similar substances engage the same physical faculties the Holy Spirit touches when you're "drunk in the Spirit." On the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit was poured out, onlookers mocked the disciples, saying things like "these men must be drunk", not realising such joy and ecstasy could only be achieved through fellowship with the Holy Ghost!

When you're filled with the Spirit, it's like electric currents flow through your bones, blood, sinuses, and body, revitalising and strengthening every part of you! Empty yourself of carnal desires and distractions, set your sights above, and be filled with His Spirit!

Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all.

In days of old, noble kings and illustrious dynasties established inheritances for their offspring, ensuring the continuation of their wealth and legacy. Those with the right to inherit but yet to assume it were called heirs apparent. Sadly, many Christians live their entire lives without claiming their full godly inheritance. Why? Because they struggle to let go of worldly pleasures and surrender to God.

Throughout history, heirs apparent were often people in their infancy, which is why the Bible describes those bound by fleshly desires as children! As long as you cling to the fleeting pleasures of this world, you'll live as a child, beneath your divine privileges. True maturity begins when you embrace your full inheritance in Christ!

You've likely heard the phrase, "beggars can't be choosers." In other words, if you carry yourself as a beggar, always desperate and settling for less, you become subject to situations and surrender the power to choose God's best outcome.

This is the year of strange oil, there is zero place for poverty in Christianity! Though this may seem to be a provocative or controversial statement, scripture confirms this spiritual and physical reality. God's children are not subject to the world's systems. In fact, we are called to superimpose our heavenly kingdom of absolute prosperity and abundance onto them.

You can choose poverty by neglecting all that Christ secured through His death and resurrection, living beneath your Godly identity, or you can choose to walk in the full abundance of every promise He fulfilled. Your heritage in the Lord is a life where lack, sickness, and misfortune can never find you, a life of ABSOLUTE PROSPERITY!

LOVE DISPENSER

1 John 4:20 (NIV)

Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen.

Isn't it remarkable how many claim to love the Lord with all their heart and soul? Yet that love remains unproven if not shown toward those they can see. Scripture is clear, if you harbour hatred toward even one person, your claim to love God is a lie! It's easy to profess devotion to Christ, but real love is revealed in how you treat others.

Many wonder why they've never experienced the blessings in Scripture, not realising that in God's eyes, they're not counted among those who truly love Him. Why? Because of the hatred they carry in their hearts toward their neighbour. Love even the most unlovable, not because they deserve it, but because Christ first loved you, even in your worst state.

The LORD is slow to anger but great in power; the LORD will not leave the guilty unpunished. His way is in the whirlwind and the storm, and clouds are the dust of his feet.

The nature of a true Christian is to be quick to forgive, loving even the most undeserving people because of the love that was first expressed to us through Jesus Christ on the cross. While this is the reality for every Christian, many people take this godly conduct and equate it to being passive and defenceless in the face of the enemy's attacks. But this couldn't be further from the truth!

Today's verse tells us that God will never let those who fight against you go unpunished. When you place your burdens on the Judge of the universe, trust He'll deliver a verdict befitting the crimes the enemy committed against you. You serve a God who's great in power. EYE OF THE STORM

Revelation 3:15-16 (KJV)

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

In meteorology, powerful storms like hurricanes form when hot and cold air collide, creating atmospheric instability. This fuels violent winds, torrential rain, and chaotic pressure systems. Yet at the centre of it all lies the eye of the storm, a deceptive calm surrounded by devastation.

Likewise, being hot and cold concerning the things of God creates spiritual chaos and instability. A half-in, half-out lifestyle may seem harmless at the centre, but it brings destruction to your peace, purpose, and relationship with God. This new year of strange oil, set your focus entirely on Him. Be fully on fire for God, and you'll see His countless wonders take shape in your life!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I refuse to live a lukewarm lifestyle! I'm fully invested in the life Christ has given me. By living for God, I am dispelling storms of misfortune and destruction in my life. Amen.

THE WORD AMONG WILD BEASTS

Mark 1:13 (NIV)

And he was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

Separation precedes revelation! From Genesis to Revelation, separation is essential for removing every possible distraction, distraction or diversion. Almost every major biblical figure spent time in solitude receiving divine instruction before stepping into the full expression of their calling. Paul spent three years in Arabia, Moses forty years in the desert, and Jesus forty days in the wilderness. This was not a coincidence; it was a necessary tool to attune their ears to God's Word.

To be separated means to silence the noise, even when it's all around you, and fix your focus on what God wants to deposit in your spirit. During His time of seclusion, Jesus faced distractions, from demonic attacks to wild beasts, yet stayed focused. It was there, in the intensity of both spiritual and physical opposition, that angels ministered to Him. Choose separation in the year of strange oil.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

When I take time to listen to God, even in the midst of wild beasts and distractions, I am being strengthened and attended to!

Proverbs 13:20 (KJV)

He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

A bee's success and survival depend on the company it keeps. In the hive, every bee has a role, workers gather nectar, nurses care for the young, guards protect, and the queen lays eggs to sustain the colony. If one fails, the safety and stability of the hive are at risk. Likewise, as children of God, we often underestimate the consequences of surrounding ourselves with the wrong people.

Imagine your walk with Christ as a spiritual hive made up of individuals positioned to move you toward your calling. Allowing the wrong influences could unintentionally compromise your growth and derail your life's direction. Scripture warns that the company of fools leads to destruction. Choose wisely. Surround yourself with like-minded people who are passionate about advancing God's Kingdom. Your destiny is too valuable to risk on careless connections.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm walking in wisdom! I detach myself from every foolish influence. My relationships reflect a heavenly standard. I align myself with Godly people who are focused and driven, like me!

THE DOCTRINE OF MEN

Mark 7:13 (KJV)

Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

Millions of Christians suffer because they take the words or customs of men and make them doctrine. Scripture clearly shows that one of the few things capable of making God's Word ineffective is the exaltation of manmade tradition over God's infallible Word. The body you use on Earth is just a shell, the real you is spirit. This means the culture of your country, city, and family is subject to the higher authority of God's Word.

If worldly culture promotes poverty, bitterness, depression, or any mindset that contradicts God's standard, reject them. Such patterns aim to rob you of the blessings and spiritual realities revealed in scripture. The moment you received Christ, you were reborn into a culture of excellence and dominion over earthly and spiritual matters. Walk in that excellence today!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I reject the traditions of this world! Every belief or custom that's not rooted in scripture has no hold on me. God's word is the final authority in my life; I walk in its fullness today!

The smallest family will become a thousand people, and the tiniest group will become a mighty nation. At the right time, I, the LORD, will make it happen.

There's a saying that goes, "Comparison is the thief of joy." This simple sentence reflects a profound biblical truth. Many Christians forfeit their peace and joy by comparing their temporary financial, marital, or vocational situations to those of others. Scripture assures us that God desires and intends to deliver only the best for us. As a wise and all-knowing Father, He knows the best time, way, and season to release those blessings.

Struggles don't mean God has abandoned you, nor do they mean greater days aren't ahead. Never equate your life with failure. Others may seem further along, but the race is not to the swift. God has a perfect, personal blueprint for your life, filled with guaranteed blessings!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I do not compare my life to the lives of others! I know God has a unique and special plan for me. I shall never be embarrassed or dismayed this year of strange oil; I serve a God who makes things HAPPEN!

ENVYING THE UNGODLY

Psalm 37:1-2 (NIV)

Do not fret because of those who are evil or be envious of those who do wrong; for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.

Many live under the false impression that the Church lags behind the world socially, leading them to admire those holding high positions in the kingdom of darkness. However, scripture is clear. Someone may possess great wealth and influence, but when you know who and whose you are, the status of any man pales in comparison.

By admiring the ungodly, you open yourself to their influence and, by extension, to Satan, gradually adopting worldly habits over righteousness. In Christ, you possess far greater wealth, status, and authority than anyone aligned with darkness. You are not merely better equipped; you are a thousand times more prepared and empowered to overcome every challenge the enemy presents.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I refuse to envy the lifestyle of the ungodly! I'll never yield to the enemy's influence. No matter the power those of the world may hold, I serve a God who is bigger and greater than them all! Praise the Lord. Amen.

But don't just listen to God's word. You must do what it says. Otherwise, you are only fooling yourselves.

Did you know your standard of living, especially regarding prosperity and health, is entirely up to you? No matter how faithful or devoted to God you are, He won't simply gift you health or wealth. These are not rewards, they're results of applying His Word.

God has given you His Word with the expectation that, through its application, every promise He made will manifest in your life. Yet many Christians, ignorant of this principle, adopt a false belief that "bad things always happen to good people."

The truth is, while one's commitment to God has value, it doesn't determine the quality of one's Christian experience. The application of scriptural principles does. God has already given you the power and authority to change your life. The real question is, will you use it?

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My success is all up to me! God has already provided the resources for me to succeed. This year, I will utilise all He has given me in Jesus' mighty Name! Amen.

WHAT YOU SEE IS WHAT YOU GET

Joshua 6:2 (KJV)

And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

The physical realm is governed by what takes place in the spiritual. So, before you can possess what Christ has given you, you must first see it manifest spiritually, not seeing with natural eyes, but through the eyes of the spirit. This is one of the governing principles of the Kingdom.

In today's verse, Joshua recounts the events leading up to the battle of Jericho. Before any troop was mobilised or any weapon drawn, God declared that the city was already delivered into his hands. All Joshua needed to do was see it first.

God has released all you need to prosper and flourish. See it manifested in the spiritual realm through prayer and reading His Word, and it will surely take shape in the natural.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I see prosperity, divine health, windows of opportunity, and blessings have been given into my hand! I've already won the battle against the enemy in every area of my life. Amen.

WHAT DOES GOD SAY?

Job 22:28 (KJV)

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee:
and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

Many Christians have misrepresented the true meaning and importance of what Scripture teaches about the power of speech. Confessions are not just about staying positive or avoiding negativity, it's about aligning your words with the truth of God's Word. Today's verse reminds us that when we decree in agreement with God's Word, we activate His will in the natural realm.

Confession isn't about mindless repetition like a parrot. It's powerful only when your words reflect what God says about you. So, what does He say? He says He came that you might prosper and be in good health. That you have authority over principalities and powers. That you are not of this world. Declare it boldly! It's not just true spiritually; it's real for you in the physical world as well.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The words I speak are fully aligned with God's Word. As I confess what Scripture says about my life, I cause those truths to manifest in the physical, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

CONVENIENCE vs CONVICTION

2 Timothy 4:2 (KJV)

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

In these last days, ministers worldwide emphasise the vital importance of winning souls by bringing people out of darkness into the light of God's dear Son, Jesus Christ. However, many Christians only share the Gospel when it feels convenient, rather than when the Holy Spirit prompts them to do so. Today's verse reminds us it's our duty to be ready to share our faith, in and out of season.

God doesn't operate according to our preferred schedule. When the Holy Spirit prompts you to speak, don't wait until the time feels right, act! Jesus, our perfect example, boldly spoke the Word, regardless of those who wished Him harm. Refuse to compromise what Scripture makes clear. Don't ignore the Spirit's prompting to reach someone with the gospel. Choose conviction over convenience.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm always prepared to spread the message of Jesus Christ to anybody, anywhere, at any time! Fear of rejection will never block my conviction to help others. Like Jesus, I choose conviction over convenience! Amen.

ABOVE THE CIRCUMSTANCES

Romans 12:2 (NIV)

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

There is a realm beyond the natural, a realm of glory where God's Word is the supreme foundation. In this higher reality, the only laws that operate come from the Word of God. Through Christ, you now belong to that realm, and God has given you His Word to train you for life above worldly circumstances. So, never say, "I'm under the circumstances", that can never be your reality. In Christ, you live above every evil circumstance.

To fully walk in this higher state of being, your mind must daily submit to God's Word. By subjecting your flesh to God's divine truth, you break free from the world's patterns of sickness, lack, depression and misfortune, and step into your new reality of abundance and flourishing.

2 Corinthians 3:18 (KJV)

But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

The Lord Jesus lived on Earth not as the Son of God in His full majesty, but as the Son of Man. He chose to function as a man to demonstrate that the miracles, signs, and wonders He performed can also be done by you, His child, even while in this earthly body.

As you read the Gospels and witness the powerful testimonies of His ministry, don't see His works as unattainable. Christ came to be the perfect example, a blueprint for how we are meant to live. His death on the cross wasn't just for redemption; it was so you might receive and walk in the same power and life that He has.

WHAT WILL BE, WILL BE

Luke 10:19 (KJV)

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

There's a pandemic of Christians who fail to realise the power they possess to change their circumstances. Many respond passively to life, allowing circumstances to dictate their outcomes, instead of enforcing change. Statements such as "What will be, will be" or "If it's mine, it will come to me" are lies from the enemy designed to block your inheritance.

As one who is born of God, you've been given authority and power to overthrow every plan and evil imagination of the enemy. You can call into existence all that Christ has given you. This means you can declare your prosperity, divine health, and command every kind of blessing to come rushing into your life. Take hold of God's Word today, walk in its reality, and witness your life change forever.

IGNORANCE OF THE WORD

Hosea 4:6 (KJV)

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

In a court of law, ignorance is never a valid excuse. Sadly, many Christians are ignorant of the truths of scripture. Consequently, they live ordinary lives plagued by pain, poverty, lack, and struggle. Not because it's God's will, but because they're unaware of what belongs to them.

The Bible is clear: God's people are destroyed for lack of knowledge, not because the enemy is too powerful, but because they're unequipped to resist him. The Word of God is your arsenal. By reading and meditating on it, you gain the spiritual weaponry to defeat every attack of the devil. Refuse to live beneath your inheritance. Walk in the power and promises of God's Word!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

OUR LORD
JESUS CHRIST

Our Lord Jesus Christ is the cornerstone of the Christian faith, His life and teachings have profoundly influenced the course of history. Our Lord Jesus Christ is known for His unparalleled compassion, wisdom, and the miraculous deeds He performed. His message centered on love, forgiveness, and the promise of eternal life, offering hope and redemption to all who believe in Him. Throughout His ministry, He travelled across the lands of Judea, healing the sick, comforting the afflicted, and teaching about God's eternal kingdom.

Receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Lord and Savior means accepting His teachings and inviting His transformative presence into your life. It is a journey toward spiritual fulfillment, grounded in faith, love, and the promise of salvation.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, we find strength, hope, and a path to eternal peace. To be made whole, or to be saved, is to submit to God and His plan and purpose for our lives. It is a turning from our old ways and turning to Jesus Christ, to ask Him for forgiveness from our sins and to give us new life in Him.

ROMANS 10:9 (KJV)

"If you declare with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

Salvation is God's free gift to us and we become His children. It is an irrevocable acceptance into the family of God and it is an empowerment to live life wholly and fully with the purpose of reflecting God to the rest of His creation.

HAVE YOU RECEIVED
JESUS CHRIST?

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” – Luke 19:10 (KJV)

WE INVITE YOU TO MAKE JESUS CHRIST, THE LORD OF YOUR LIFE BY PRAYING THIS PRAYER;

“O Lord God, I come to you in the name of Jesus Christ. I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, Son of the living God. I believe He died for me and God raised Him from the dead. I believe He’s alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from this day. Through Him and in His name, I have eternal life; I am born again.”

Thank you Lord, for saving my soul!
I’m now a child of God. Hallelujah!”

Congratulations!
You are now a child of God.

Continue to grow by staying in His Word, praying daily, and keeping your faith strong. God has an incredible journey ahead for you.

THE GIFT OF SALVATION

ROMANS 10:9 (KJV)

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

Salvation is the greatest miracle of all. It's not earned by good deeds or religious effort, it's a free gift from God. When Jesus Christ died and rose again, He opened the way for every person to be rescued from sin and brought into eternal life. His arms are open wide, ready to welcome anyone who believes and calls upon His name.

It doesn't matter where you've been or what you've done. The blood of Jesus washes every sin, every mistake, and every failure. In a single moment of faith, your past is erased, and a brand-new life begins. All you have to do is believe in your heart that Jesus is Lord and confess Him with your mouth. Right now, you can receive Him.

Say: “Lord Jesus, I believe You died for me and rose again. I receive You as my Lord and Saviour.”

That's it, you're born again! You've passed from death to life.

THE MOMENT OF YOUR HEALING

1 PETER 2:24 (KJV)

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.”

Healing is not a promise waiting to happen; it is a finished work. When Jesus hung on that cross, He didn't just carry your sins, He carried every sickness, every pain, and every infirmity. The stripes on His back were the payment for your wholeness.

You don't have to struggle to get healed; your healing was secured over two thousand years ago. Now, all that remains is for you to believe it. The moment you accept Jesus Christ, that same power that raised Him from the dead begins to work in your body.

Speak life to every cell and every bone. Refuse to see yourself as sick. Instead, declare with boldness:

“By His stripes, I am healed.”

Right now, that healing power is flowing through you. Every symptom must bow to the name of Jesus.

Receive it, your healing is here!
